27 Blessed be Jehovah the God of our forefathers, who has put such a thing into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem! 28 And toward me he has extended loving-kindness before the king and his counselors and as respects all the mighty princes of the king. And I, for my part, strengthened myself according to the hand of Jehovah necessities of the house of your my God upon me, and I proceeded to collect out of Israel the head | ri'ah and Me-shul'lam, head ones, ones to go up with me.

Now these were the heads of their paternal houses and the genealogical enrollment of those going up with me during the reign of Ar·ta·xerx'es the king out of Babylon: 2 Of the sons of Phin'ehas. Ger'shom: of the sons of Ith'amar. Daniel: of the sons of David. Hat'tush; 3 of the sons of Sheca·ni'ah, of the sons of Pa'rosh. Zech·a·ri'ah, and with him there was an enrollment of a hundred and fifty males; 4 of the sons of Pa'hath-mo'ab, El'ie-ho-e'nai the son of Zer·a·hi'ah, and with him two hundred males; 5 of the sons [of Zat'tul. Shec a ni'ah the son of Ja·ha·zi'el, and with him three hundred males: 6 and of the sons of A'din, E'bed the son of Jon'athan, and with him fifty males; 7 and of the sons of E'lam, Je-sha'iah the son of Athali'ah, and nated by [their] names. with him seventy males: 8 and of the sons of Sheph-a-ti'ah, Zeb-adi'ah the son of Mi'cha·el, and with him eighty males: 9 of the sons seek from him the right way for us of Jo'ab, O.ba.di'ah the son of Je·hi'el, and with him two hundred and eighteen males: 10 and of the sons of [Ba'ni], She lo'mith the men from the king to help us son of Jo·si·phi'ah, and with him a hundred and sixty males; 11 and cause we had said to the king: "The of the sons of Be'bai, Zech a ri'ah hand of our God is over all those the son of Be'bai, and with him twenty-eight males: 12 and of the sons of Az'gad, Jo-ha'nan the son of Hak'ka tan, and with him a hundred and ten males; 13 and our God concerning this, so that of the sons of A.do.ni'kam, those he let himself be entreated by us. who were the last, and these were their names: E·liph'e·let, Je·i'el and She-mai'ah, and with them sixty males: 14 and of the sons with them seventy males.

5 At that Ez'ra rose and had the chiefs of the priests, the Levites and all Israel take an oath to do according to this word, Accordingly they took an oath. 6 Ez'ra now rose from before the house of the [true] God and went to the dining hall of Je-ho-ha'nan the son of E·li'a·shib. Although he went there, he ate no bread and drank no water, for he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.

7 Then they caused a call to pass throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the former exiles to collect themselves together at Jerusalem: 8 and anyone that did not come in three days' time according to the counsel of the princes and the older men-all his goods would be put under a ban and he himself be separated from the congregation of the exiled people. 9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin collected themselves together at Jerusalem within three days, that is, in the ninth month on the twentieth [day] of the month, and all the people kept sitting in the open place of the house of the [true] God, shivering because of the matter and on account of the showers

10 At length Ez'ra the priest rose and said to them: "You

15 (However, Jon'a than the son of As'a hel and Jah zei'ah the son of Tik'vah themselves stood up against this, and Me-shul'lam and Shab'be that the Levites were the ones that helped them.) 16 And the former exiles proceeded to do that way; and Ez'ra the priest [and] the men that were the heads of the fathers for their paternal Mal·chi'jah, She·mai'ah, Shim'ehouse, even all of them by [their] on, 32 Benjamin, Mal'luch [and] names, now separated themselves Shem a ri'ah; 33 of the sons of and began sitting on the first day Ha'shum, Mat-te'nai, Mat'tat-tah, of the tenth month to inquire into Za'bad, E-liph'e-let, Jer'e-mai, Mathe matter; 17 and gradually they finished with all the men that had given a dwelling to foreign wives by the first day of the first ah, Chel'u·hi, 36 Va·ni'ah, Mer'month. 18 And some of the sons e-moth, E-li'a-shib, 37 Mat-ta-of the priests came to be found ni'ah, Mat-te'nai and Ja'a-su; that had given a dwelling to for- 38 and of the sons of Bin'nu-i, eign wives; of the sons of Jesh'u·a Shim'e·i 39 and Shel·e·mi'ah and the son of Je hoz'a dak and his Nathan and A dai'ah, 40 Machbrothers, Ma·a·sei'ah and E·li·e'zer nad'e·bai, Sha'shai, Sha'rai, and Ja'rib and Ged a · li'ah. 19 But they promised by shaking Shem a ri'ah, 42 Shal'lum, Amhands to put their wives away, and that, they being guilty, there should Ne'bo, Je i'el, Mat ti thi'ah, Za'be a ram of the flock for their bad, Ze bi'na, Jad'dai and Joel guiltiness.

Now I myself happened to be cupbearer to the king.

And it came about in the month Ni'san, in the twentieth year of Ar·ta·xerx'es the king, that wine the king. But never had I happened to be gloomy before him. 2 So the became very much afraid.

3 Then I said to the king: "Let inite! Why should not my face forefathers, is devastated, and its very gates have been eaten un king: "If to the king it does seem 8 "Remember, please, the word good, and if your servant seems "How long will your journey come I came back and entered by the to be and when will you return?" So it seemed good before the king that he should send me, when I gave him the appointed time.

7 And I went on to say to the king: "If to the king it does seem good, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass until I come to Judah; 8 also a letter to A'saph the keeper of the park that belongs to the king, that he may give me trees to build with timber the gates of the Castle that belongs to the house, and for the wall of the city and for the house into which I am to enter." So the king gave [them] to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 Eventually I came to the governors beyond the River and gave them the letters of the king. Moreover, the king sent with me chiefs of the military force and horsemen. 10 When San-bal'lat the Hor'o-nite and To-bi'ah the servant, the Am'mon-ite, got to hear [of it], then it seemed to them something very bad that a man had come to seek something good for the sons of Israel.

11 At length I came to Jerusalem, and I continued there for three days. 12 Then I rose up by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell a man what my God was putting into my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there was no domestic animal with me except the domestic animal on which I Jerusalem, how they were broken eaten up by fire. 14 And I went the son of Im'ri did building. passing along to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, and there the sons of Has se na'ah built: was no place for the domestic they themselves timbered it and animal under me to pass along, then set up its doors, its bolts and 15 But I kept on ascending in the its bars. 4 And at their side Mer'torrent valley by night, and I kept e-moth the son of U-ri'jah the son

16 And the deputy rulers themselves did not know where I had gone and what I was doing; and to the Jews and the priests and the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the doers of the work I had not yet told anything. 17 Finally I said to them: "You are seeing the bad plight in which we are, how Jerusalem is devastated and its gates have been burned with fire. Come and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer continue to be a reproach." 18 And I went on to tell them of the hand of my God. how it was good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had said to me. At this they said: "Let us get up, and we must build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

19 Now when San bal'lat the Hor'o nite and To bi'ah the servant, the Am'mon ite, and Ge'shem the Arabian heard of it, they began to deride us and look on us despisingly and say: "What is this thing that you are doing? Is it against the king that you are rebelling?" 20 However, I replied to them and said to them: "The God of the heavens is the One that will grant us success, and we ourselves, his servants, shall get up, and we must build; but you yourselves have no share, nor just claim, nor memorial in Jerusalem."

2 And E·li'a·shib the high priest and his brothers, the priests, was riding. 13 And I proceeded proceeded to get up and build the to go out by the Valley Gate by Sheep Gate. Wall sections, Opposition of enemies

4 Hear, O our God, for we have become an object of contempt; and make their reproach return upon their own head, and give them to the plunder in the land of captivity. 5 And do not cover over their error and their sin from before you. Let it not be wiped out, for they have committed offense against the builders.

6 So we kept building the wall, and the entire wall came to be joined together clear to half its height], and the people continued to have a heart for working.

7 Now it came about that, as soon as San·bal'lat and To·bi'ah and the Arabians and the Am'mon·ites and the Ash'dod·ites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem had gone forward, for the gaps had started to be stopped up, they became very angry. 8 And all of them began to conspire together to come and fight against Jerusalem and cause me disturbance. 9 But we prayed to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night on

10 And Judah began to say: "The power of the burden bearer has stumbled, and there is a great deal of rubbish; and we ourselves

Jehovah the great and the fear-inspiring One keep in your mind; and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes."

15 Now it came about that as soon as our enemies heard that it had become known to us, so that the [true] God had frustrated their counsel and we had all of us gone back to the wall, each one to his work, 16 yes, it came about that from that day forward half of my young men were active in the work and half of them were holding the lances, the shields and the bows and the coats of mail; and the princes were behind the whole house of Judah. 17 As for the builders on the wall and those who were carrying the burden of load bearers, [each] one was active in the work with his one hand while the other [hand] was holding the missile. 18 And the builders were girded, each one with his sword upon his hip, while building; and the one to blow the horn was alongside me.

19 And I proceeded to say to the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the people: "The work is large and extensive, and we are spread about upon the wall far apart from one another. 20 In the place where you hear the sound of the horn, there is where I proceeded to say to them: "We you will collect yourselves together to us. "Let the men spend the night, 13 So I kept [men] posted at each one with his attendant, in were not taking off our garments. each one [having] his missile in his right hand.

> 5 However, there came to be a great outcry of the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers. 2 And there were those who were saying: "Our sons and our daughters we are giving as security that we may get grain and eat and keep alive." 3 And there were those who were saying: "Our fields and our vineyards and our houses we are giving as security that we may get grain during the food shortage." 4 And there were those who were saving: "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute on our fields and our vineyards. 5 And now our flesh is the same as the flesh of our brothers; our sons are the same as their sons, but here we are reducing our sons and our daughters to slaves, and there are some of our daughters already reduced; and there is no power in our hands while our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

> 6 Now I became very angry as soon as I heard their outcry and these words. 7 So my heart took consideration within me, and I began finding fault with the nobles and the deputy rulers, and went on to say to them: "Usury is what you are exacting, each one from Further, I arranged a great assembly on their account. 8 And ourselves have bought back our to the nations, as far as it was in 21 While we were active in the our power; and at the same time will you yourselves sell your own were holding the lances, from the brothers, and must they be sold ascending of the dawn until the to us?" 8 However, I sent to him, saving: | them. 18 For many in Judah "Things such as you are saying have not been brought about, but it he was to Shec a ni'ah the son of is out of your own heart that you A'rah; and Je ho ha'nan his son are inventing them." 9 For all of had himself taken the daughter of them were trying to make us afraid. Me-shul'lam the son of Ber-e-chi'saying: "Their hands will drop ah, 19 Also, good things about down from the work so that it will him they were continually saying not be done." But now strengthen my hands.

10 And I myself entered the house of She-mai'ah the son of Dela'iah the son of Me·het'a·bel while he was shut up. And he proceeded to say: "Let us meet by appointment at the house of the [true] God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple: for they are coming in to kill you. even by night they are coming in to kill you." 11 But I said: "Should a man like me run away? And who is there like me that could enter into the temple and live? I shall not enter!" 12 So I investigated, and here it was not God that had sent him, but he had spoken this prophecy against me as To·bi'ah and San·bal'lat themselves had hired him. 13 For this reason he had been hired in order that I might be afraid and do that way, and I should certainly sin and it should certainly become in their possession a bad reputation, in order that they might reproach me.

14 Do remember, O my God, To·bi'ah and San·bal'lat, according to these deeds of [each] one, and also No·a·di'ah the prophetess and the rest of the prophets that were continually trying to make me afraid.

15 At length the wall came to completion on the twenty-fifth [day] of E'lul, in fifty-two days.

And it came about that, as soon as the wall had been rebuilt, I at once set up the doors. Then there were appointed the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites. 2 And I went on to put in command of Jerusalem Ha na'ni my brother and Han a ni'ah the prince of the Castle, for he was such a trustworthy man and feared the truel God more than many others. 3 So I said to them: "The gates of Jerusalem should not be opened until the sun gets hot; and while they are standing by they should shut the doors and bolt [them]. And station guards of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each one at his own guardpost and each one in front of his own house." 4 Now the city was wide and great. and there were few people inside it. and there were no houses built.

5 But my God put [it] into my heart that I should collect together the nobles and the deputy rulers and the people to get themselves enrolled genealogically. Then I found the book of genealogical enrollment of those who came up at the first, and found written in it:

Amen!" with the lifting up of their hands. They then bowed low and prostrated themselves to Jehovah with [their] faces to the earth. 7 And Jesh'u-a and Ba'ni and Shere·bi'ah, Ja'min, Ak'kub, Shab'bethai, Ho di'ah, Ma a sei'ah, Ke li'ta, Az·a·ri'ah, Jo'za·bad, Ha'nan, Pe·la'iah, even the Levites, were explaining the law to the people, while the people were in a standing position. 8 And they continued reading aloud from the book, from the law of the [true] God, it being expounded, and there being a putting of meaning [into it]; and they continued giving understanding in the reading.

9 And Ne·he·mi'ah, that is, the Tir·sha'tha, and Ez'ra the priest, gather themselves as one man at the copyist, and the Levites who

For all the people were weeping as book of the law of the [true] God they were hearing the words of the day by day, from the first day until law. 10 And he went on to say to the last day; and they went on them: "Go, eat the fatty things holding the festival seven days, and and drink the sweet things, and send portions to the one for whom nothing has been prepared; for this rule. day is holy to our Lord, and do not feel hurt, for the joy of Jehovah is Your stronghold." 11 And the Levites were ordering all the people to be silent, saving: "Keep quiet! for this day is holy; and do not feel hurt." 12 So all the people went away to eat and drink and to send out portions and to carry on a great rejoicing, for they had understood the words that had been made known to them.

13 And on the second day the heads of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites. gathered themselves together to Ez'ra the copyist, even to gain insight into the words of the law. 14 Then they found written in the law that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths during the festival in the seventh month. 15 and that they should make Kad'mi el, Ba'ni, Hash ab nei'ah, proclamation and cause a call to pass throughout all their cities and throughout Jerusalem, saving: "Go out to the mountainous region and bring in olive leaves and the leaves of oil trees and myrtle leaves and palm leaves and the leaves of branchy trees to make booths, according to what is written."

The pillar of cloud itself did not depart from over them by day to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to light up for them the way in which they should go. 20 And your good spirit you gave to make them prudent, and your manna you did not hold back from their mouth, and water you gave them for their thirst. 21 And for forty years you provided them with food in the wilderness. They lacked nothing, Their very garments did not wear out, and their feet themselves did not become swollen.

22 "And you proceeded to give them kingdoms and peoples, and to apportion them piece by piece; so that they took possession of the land of Si'hon, even the land of the king of Hesh'bon, and the land of Og the king of Ba'shan, 23 And their sons you made as many as the stars of the heavens. Then you brought them into the land that you had promised to their forefathers that [they] should enter to take possession. 24 So their sons came in and took the land in possession, and you proceeded to subdue before them the inhabitants of the land, the Ca'naan-ites, and to give them into their hand, even their kings and the peoples of the land, to do with them according to their liking, 25 And they went capturing fortified cities and a fat soil and taking in possession houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards and olive groves and trees for food in abundance, and they began to eat and to be satisfied and to grow fat and to luxuriate in your great goodness.

44 Further, there were appointed on that day men over the halls for the stores, for the contributions, for the first fruits and for the tenths, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions [called for by] the law for the priests and the Levites; for the rejoicing of Judah was because of the priests and of the Levites who were in attendance. 45 And they began taking care of the obligation of their God and the obligation of and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David [and] Sol'o mon his son. 46 For in the days of David and A'saph in bygone ers and the song of praise and thanksgivings to God. 47 And all Israel during the days of Ze rub'ba bel and during the days of Nehe mi'ah were giving the portions of the singers and of the gatekeepers according to the daily need and were sanctifying [them] to the Levites: and the Levites were sanctifying [them] to the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day there was a reading from the book of Moses in the ears of the people: and there was found written in it that the Am'mon-ite and the Mo'ab-ite should not come into the congregation of the [true] God to time indefinite. 2 for they had not met the sons of Israel with bread and with water, but went hiring against them Ba'laam to call down evil upon them. However, our God changed the malediction into a benediction, 3 So it came about that, as soon as they heard the law. they began to separate all the mixed company from Israel.

4 Now before this, E-li'a-shib the priest in charge of a dining hall of the house of our God was a relative of To·bi'ah; 5 and he proceeded hall, where previously they were with the house of my God and regularly putting the grain offering, the frankincense and the utensils and the tenth of the grain, the new wine and the oil, to which the Levites and the singers and the gatekeepers are entitled, and the contribution for the priests.

6 And during all this [time] I did not happen to be in Jerusalem. for in the thirty-second year of Ar·ta·xerx'es the king of Babylon I came to the king, and some time later I asked leave of absence from the king. 7 Then I came to Jerusalem and got to notice the badness that E·li'a·shib had committed for To·bi'ah by making for him a hall in the courtvard of the house of the [true] God. 8 And it seemed very bad to me. So I threw all the furniture of To.bi'ah's house outside the dining hall. 9 After that I said [the word] and they cleansed the dining halls; and I proceeded to put back there the utensils of the house of the [true] God, with the grain offering profaning the sabbath." and the frankincense.

10 And I got to find out that the very portions of the Levites had not been given [them], so that the Levites and the singers doing the work went running off, each one to his own field. 11 And I began to find fault with the deputy rulers and say: "Why has the house of the [true] God been neglected?" Consequently I collected them together and stationed them at their standing place. 12 And all Judah, for their part, brought in the tenth of the grain and of the new wine and of the oil to the stores. 13 Then I put Shel-e-mi'ah the priest and Za'dok the copyist and Pe dai'ah of the Levites in charge of the stores; and under their control there was Ha'nan the son of Zac'cur the son of Mat-ta-ni'ah. for they were considered faithful; and upon them it devolved to do larly purifying themselves and comthe distributing to their brothers.

15 In those days I saw in Judah people treading wine presses on the sabbath and bringing in grain heaps and loading [them] upon asses. and also wine, grapes and figs and every sort of burden, and bringing [them] into Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and I proceeded to bear witness [against them] on the day of their selling provisions. 16 And the Tyr'i ans themselves dwelt in [the city], bringing in fish and every sort of merchandise and making sales on the sabbath to the sons of Judah and in Jerusalem. 17 So I began to find fault with the nobles of Judah and say to them: "What is this bad thing that you are doing, even profaning the sabbath day? 18 Was it not this way that your forefathers did. so that our God brought upon us all this calamity, and also upon this city? Yet you are adding to the burning anger against Israel by 19 And it came about that, as soon as the gates of Jerusalem had grown shadowy before the sabbath. I immediately said [the word] and the doors began to be closed. I said further that they should not open them until after the sabbath; and some of my own attendants I stationed at the gates that no burden might come in on the sabbath day. 20 Consequently the traders and the sellers of every sort of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once and a second time. 21 Then I proceeded to bear witness against them and say to them: "Why are you spending the night in front of the wall? If you do it again, a hand I shall lay on you," From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

Everything that she would mention would be given her, to come with her from the house of the women to the king's house. 14 In the evening she herself came in, and in the morning she herself returned to the second house of the women in charge of Sha·ash'gaz the king's eunuch, the guardian of the con-

15 And when the turn of Esther the daughter of Ab'i·ha·il the uncle of Mor'de cai, whom he had taken as his daughter, arrived to come in as his daughter. 8 And it came to the king, she did not request anything except what Heg'a i the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, proceeded to mention (all together at Shu'shan the castle in the while Esther was continually gaining favor in the eves of everyone seeing her). 16 Then Esther was taken to King A.has.u.e'rus at his royal house in the tenth month, that is, the month Te'beth, in the she gained more favor and lovingother virgins. And he proceeded to put the royal headdress upon her head and make her queen instead of Vash'ti. 18 And the king went his princes and his servants, the granted, and he kept giving presents according to the means of the king.

19 Now when virgins were collected together a second time, Mor'de cai was sitting in the king's gate. 20 Esther was not telling about her relatives and her people. just as Mor'de cai had laid the command upon her; and the saving days of their massage procedure ing, just as when she happened to 21 In those days while Mor'decai was sitting in the king's gate, Big'than and Te'resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, became indignant and kept seeking to lay hand on King A.has.u.e'rus. 22 And the thing came to be known to Mor'de cai, and he immediately told Esther the queen. In turn Esther talked to the king in Mor'decai's name. 23 So the matter was sought out and eventually found out, and both of them got to be cubines. She would not come in any hanged on a stake; after which it was written in the book of the affairs of the days before the king.

3 After these things King A hasu e'rus magnified Ha'man the son of Ham · me · da'tha the Ag'agite and proceeded to exalt him and to put his throne above all the other princes that were with him. 2 And all the king's servants that were in the king's gate were bowing low and prostrating themselves to Ha'man, for so the king had commanded respecting him. But as for Mor'de cai, he would neither bow low nor prostrate himself. 3 And the king's servants who were in the king's gate began to say to Mor'decai: "Why are you side-stepping the king's commandment?" 4 And it came about that, as they talked to him day by day, and he did not listen to them, then they told Ha'man to see whether Mor'decai's affairs would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 Now Ha'man kept seeing that Mor'de-cai was not bowing low and prostrating himself to him, and Ha'man became filled with rage. 6 But it was despicable in his eyes to lay hand upon Mor'de cai alone. for they had told him about Mor'de cai's people; and Ha'man began seeking to annihilate all the Jews who were in all the realm of A.hasu·e'rus, Mor'de·cai's people.

7 In the first month, that is, the month Ni'san, in the twelfth year of King A.has.u.e'rus, someone cast Pur, that is, the Lot, before Ha'man from day to day and from month to month, [to] the twelfth, that is, the month A.dar'. 8 And Ha'man proceeded to say to King A.has·u·e'rus: "There is one certain people scattered and separated to drink; but as for the city of among the peoples in all the jurisdictional districts of your realm; and their laws are different from all other people's, and the king's own laws they are not performing, and for the king it is not appropriate to let them alone. 9 If to the king it does seem good, let there be a writing that they be destroyed; and ten thousand silver talents I shall in front of the king's gate, for no pay into the hands of those doing one was to come into the king's the work by bringing [it] into the king's treasury."

10 At that the king removed his signet ring from his own hand and gave it to Ha'man the son of Hamme da'tha the Ag'ag ite, the one showing hostility to the Jews. 11 And the king went on to say to Ha'man: "The silver is given to you, also the people, to do with them according to what is good in your own eyes." 12 The king's secretaries were then called in the first month on the thirteenth day of it, and writing went on according to all that Ha'man commanded the king's satraps and the governors who were over the different jurisdictional districts, and the princes of the different peoples, of each jurisdictional district, in its own style of writing, and each people in its own tongue; in the name of King A.has.u.e'rus it was written and it was sealed with the king's signet ring.

13 And there was a sending of the letters by means of couriers to all the king's jurisdictional districts. to annihilate, to kill and to destroy all the Jews, young man as well as old man, little ones and women, on one day, on the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, that is, the month A.dar', and to plunder the spoil of them. 14 A copy of the writing to be given as law in all the different jurisdictional districts was being published to all the peoples. [for them] to become ready for this day. 15 The couriers themselves went out, being moved to speed because of the king's word. and the law itself was given in Shu'shan the castle. As for the king and Ha'man, they sat down Shu'shan, it was in confusion.

And Mor'de cai himself got 4 knowledge of everything that had been done; and Mor'de cai proceeded to rip his garments apart and put on sackcloth and ashes and go out into the middle of the city and cry out with a loud and bitter outcry. 2 Finally he came as far as Sackcloth and than all the other Jews. 14 For ashes themselves came to be spread if you are altogether silent at this out as a couch for many. 4 And time, relief and deliverance them-Esther's young women and her eunuchs began to come in and tell from another place; but as for you her. And the gueen was very much pained. Then she sent garments ple will perish. And who is there to clothe Mor'de cai and to remove his sackcloth off him. And he did like this that you have attained to not accept [them]. 5 At this Esther called Ha'thach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had made to attend upon her, and she proceeded to give him a command concerning Mor'de-cai, to know what this meant and what this was all about.

6 So Ha'thach went out to Mor'de cai into the public square of the city that was before the king's gate. 7 Then Mor'de cai told him I must perish." 17 At this Mor'about all the things that had befallen him and the exact statement of the money that Ha'man had said to pay to the king's treasury against the Jews, to destroy them. 8 And a copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Shu'shan to have them annihilated he gave him to show Esther and to tell her and to lay the command upon her to come in to the king and implore favor of him and make request directly before him for her own people.

9 Ha'thach now came in and told Esther Mor'de cai's words. 10 Then Esther said to Ha'thach and commanded him concerning Mor'de-cai: 11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's jurisdictional districts are aware that, as regards any man or woman that comes in to the king at the inner courtvard who is not called, his one law is to have [him] put to death: only in case the king holds out to him the golden scepter, he will also certainly stay alive. As for me, I have not been called to come in to the king now for thirty days."

Esther: "Do not imagine within selves will stand up for the Jews and your father's house, you peoknowing whether it is for a time royal dignity?"

15 Accordingly Esther said to reply to Mor'de cai: 16 "Go, gather all the Jews that are to be found in Shu'shan and fast in my behalf and neither eat nor drink for three days, night and day. I too with my young women, I shall fast likewise, and upon that I shall come in to the king, which is not according to the law; and in case I must perish. de-cai passed along and proceeded to do according to all that Esther had laid in command upon him.

5 And it came about on the third day that Esther went dressing up royally, after which she took her stand in the inner courtyard of the king's house opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the entrance of the house. 2 And it came about that, as soon as the king saw Esther the queen standing in the courtyard, she gained favor in his eyes, so that the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Esther now came near and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then the king said to her: "What do you have, O Esther the queen, and what is your request? To the half of the kingship-let it even be given to you!" 4 In turn Esther said: "If to the king it does seem good, let the king with Ha'man come today to the banquet that I have made for him." 5 Accordingly the king said: "You men, have Ha'man act quickly on the word of Esther." Later the king and Ha'man came to the banquet that Esther had made.

6 In time the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine: "What is your petition? Let it even be granted you! And what is your request? To the half of the kingship-let it even be done!" 7 To this Esther answered and said: "My petition and my request is, 8 If I have found favor in the king's eves and if to the king it does seem good to grant my petition and to act on my request, let the king and Ha'man come to the banquet that I shall hold for them [tomorrow], and tomorrow I shall do according to the king's word."

9 Consequently Ha'man went out on that day joyful and merry of heart; but as soon as Ha'man saw Mor'de cai in the king's gate and that he did not rise and did not quake on account of him, Ha'man was immediately filled with rage against Mor'de cai. 10 However, Ha'man kept control of himself and came into his house. Then he sent and had his friends and Ze'resh his wife brought in; 11 and Ha'man proceeded to declare to them the glory of his riches and the large number of his sons and everything with which the king had magnified him and how he had exalted him over the princes and the servants of the king.

12 And Ha'man went on to say: "What is more, Esther the queen brought in with the king to the banquet that she had made no one but me, and tomorrow also I am invited to her with the king. 13 But all this-none of it suits me as long as I am seeing Mor'decai the Jew sitting in the king's gate." 14 At that Ze'resh his wife and all his friends said to him: "Let them make a stake fifty cubits high. Then in the morning say to the king that they should hang Mor'de cai on it. Then go in with the king to the banguet joyful." So the thing seemed good before Ha'man, and he proceeded to have man: "Quickly, take the apparel

6 During that night the king's sleep fled. Therefore he said to bring the book of the records of the affairs of the times. Thus there came to be a reading of them before the king. 2 At length there was found written what Mor'de cai had reported concerning Big·tha'na and Te'resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, who had sought to lay hand on King A.hasu·e'rus. 3 Then the king said: "What honor and great thing has been done to Mor'de-cai for this?" To this the king's attendants, his ministers, said: "Nothing has been done with him."

4 Later the king said: "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Ha'man himself had come into the outer courtvard of the king's house to say to the king to hang Mor'de cai on the stake that he had prepared for him. 5 Accordingly the king's attendants said to him: "Here is Ha'man standing in the courtyard." So the king said: "Let him come in."

6 When Ha'man came in, the king proceeded to say to him: "What is to be done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight?" At this Ha'man said in his heart: "To whom would the king take delight in rendering an honor more than me?" 7 So Ha'man said to the king: "As for the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight, 8 let them bring royal apparel with which the king does clothe himself and a horse upon which the king does ride and on the head of which the royal headdress has been put. 9 And let there be a putting of the apparel and the horse into the charge of one of the king's noble princes; and they must clothe the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight. and they must make him ride on the horse in the public square of the city, and they must call out before him, 'This is how it is done to the man in whose honor the king himself has taken a delight." 10 At once the king said to Ha'the stake made. and the horse, just as you have

Then the king and Ha'man came in to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 The king now said to Esther also on the second day during the banquet of wine: "What is your petition. O Esther the queen? Let it even be given to you, And what is your request? To the half of the kingship—let it even be house of Ha'man, the one showing done!" 3 At this Esther the queen hostility to the Jews; and Mor'deanswered and said: "If I have cai himself came in before the king, found favor in your eyes, O king, because Esther had told what he and if to the king it does seem was to her. 2 Then the king regood, let there be given me my own soul at my petition and my taken away from Ha'man and gave people at my request. 4 For we it to Mor'de cai; and Esther went have been sold, I and my people, on to place Mor'de cai over the to be annihilated, killed and de- house of Ha'man. stroyed. The word itself went out of fall, you will not prevail against the king's mouth, and Ha'man's him, but you will without fail fall face they covered. 9 Har bo'na, one of the court officials before the king, now said: "Also, there is the with him the king's court officials stake that Ha'man made for Mor'themselves arrived and proceeded de-cai, who had spoken good conhastily to bring Ha'man to the cerning the king, standing in Ha'man's house-fifty cubits high." 7 So King A.has.u.e'rus said to Esther the queen and to Mor'de cai the Jew: "Look! The house of Ha'man I have given to Esther, and him they have hanged on the stake, for the reason that he thrust out his hand against the Jews. 8 And you yourselves write in behalf of the Jews according to what is good in your own eyes in the king's name and seal [it] with the king's signet ring; for a writing that is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring it is not possible to undo."

9 Accordingly the secretaries of the king were called at that time in the third month, that is, the month of Si'van, on the twentythird [day] of it; and writing went on according to all that Mor'de cai commanded to the Jews and to the satraps and the governors and the princes of the jurisdictional districts that were from In'dia to E.thi.o'pi.a. a hundred and twentyseven jurisdictional districts, [to] each jurisdictional district in its own style of writing and [to] each people in its own tongue, and to the Jews in their own style of writing and in their own tongue.

15 As for Mor'de cai, he went forth from before the king in royal apparel of blue and linen, with a great crown of gold, and a finefabric cloak, even of wool dyed reddish purple. And the city of Shu'shan itself cried out shrilly and was joyful. 16 For the Jews there occurred light and rejoicing and exultation and honor. 17 And in all the different jurisdictional districts and in all the different cities wherever the word of the king and his law were reaching there were rejoicing and exultation for the Jews, a banquet and a good day; and many of the peoples of the land were declaring themselves Jews, for the dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

And in the twelfth month, that is, the month of A.dar', on the thirteenth day of it, when the king's word and his law came due to be performed, on the day for which the enemies of the Jews had waited to domineer over them, there was even a turning to the contrary, in to the Jews that were in all the dif-tional districts of King A.has.ue'rus to lay hand on those seeking in Shu'shan, and the ten sons of their injury, and not a man stood Ha'man were hanged. his ground before them, for the 15 And the Jews that were in dread of them had fallen upon all Shu'shan proceeded to congregate the peoples. 3 And all the princes themselves also on the fourteenth of the jurisdictional districts and day of the month A-dar', and they the satraps and the governors and got to kill in Shu'shan three hunthe doers of the business that be- dred men; but on the plunder they longed to the king were assisting did not lay their hand. the Jews, for the dread of Mor'decai had fallen upon them. 4 For Mor'de cai was great in the king's house and his fame was traveling throughout all the jurisdictional

6 Now it came to be the day entered to take their station before Jehovah, and even Satan proceeded to enter right among them.

7 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Where do you come from?" At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "From roving about in the earth and from walking about in it." 8 And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: "Have you set your heart upon my servant Job, that there is and your daughters were eating and no one like him in the earth, a man blameless and upright, fearing God and turning aside from bad?" 9 At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "Is it for nothing that Job has feared God? 10 Have not you yourself put up a hedge about him and about his house and about everything that he has all around? The work of his hands you have blessed, and his livestock itself has spread abroad in the earth. 11 But, for a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch everything he has [and see] whether he will not curse you to your very face." 12 Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "Look! Everything that he has is in your hand. Only against him himself do not thrust out your hand!" So Satan went out away from the person of Jehovah.

13 Now it came to be the day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother the firstborn. 14 And there came a messenger to Job, and he proceeded to say: "The cattle themselves happened to be plowing and the them to take his station before she-asses were grazing at the side Jehovah. of them 15 when the Sabe'ans came making a raid and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the and said: "From roving about in sword; and I got to escape, only I the earth and from walking about by myself, to tell you."

17 While that one was yet speakwhen the sons of the [true] God ing another one came and proceeded to say: "The Chal-de'ans made up three bands and went dashing against the camels and taking them, and the attendants they struck down with the edge of the sword; and I got to escape, only I by

18 While this other one was yet speaking, still another one came and proceeded to say: "Your sons drinking wine in the house of their brother the first-born, 19 And, look! there came a great wind from the region of the wilderness, and it went striking the four corners of the house, so that it fell upon the young people and they died. And I got to escape, only I by myself, to tell you."

20 And Job proceeded to get up and rip his sleeveless coat apart and cut the hair off his head and fall to the earth and bow down

21 and say:

"Naked I came out of my mother's belly.

And naked shall I return there. Jehovah himself has given, and Jehovah himself has taken away.

Let the name of Jehovah continue to be blessed."

22 In all this Job did not sin or ascribe anything improper to God.

2 Afterward it came to be the day when the sons of the [true] God entered to take their station before Jehovah, and Satan also proceeded to enter right among

At that Satan answered Jehovah in it." 3 And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: "Have you set | and seven nights, and there was the earth, a man blameless and very great. upright, fearing God and turning aside from bad? Even yet he is holding fast his integrity, although you incite me against him to swallow him up without cause." 4 But Satan answered Jehovah and said: "Skin in behalf of skin, and everything that a man has he will give in behalf of his soul. 5 For a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch as far as his bone and his flesh [and see] whether he will not curse you to your very face."

6 Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "There he is in your hand! Only watch out for his soul itself!" 7 So Satan went out away from the person of Jehovah and struck Job with a malignant boil from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And he proceeded to take for himself a fragment of earthenware with which to scrape himself: and he was sitting in among the ashes.

9 Finally his wife said to him: "Are you yet holding fast your integrity? Curse God and die!" 10 But he said to her: "As one of the senseless women speaks, you speak also. Shall we accept merely what is good from the [true] God and not accept also what is bad?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

4 As for that day, let it become darkness.

Let not God look for it from above.

99 And Job proceeded to answer 25 and say:

2 "Even today my state of concern is rebelliousness; My own hand is heavy on account of my sighing. 3 O that I really knew where I might find him! I would come clear to his fixed place.

4 I would present before him a case of justice.

And my mouth I would fill with counterarguments;

5 I would know the words with which he answers me. And I would consider what he says to me. 6 Would he with an abundance of power contend with me? O no! Surely he himself would pay heed to me.

7 There the upright one himself will certainly set matters straight with him.

And I would go safe forever from my judge.

8 Look! To the east I go, and he is not there:

And back again, and I cannot discern him:

9 To the left where he is working, but I cannot behold [him]: He turns aside to the right, but I do not see [him].

10 For he well knows the way I take.

> [After] he has tested me out, I shall come forth as gold

11 Of his steps my foot has laid hold:

His way I have kept, and I do not deviate.

12 [From] the commandment of his lips I do not move away.

I have treasured up the sayings of his mouth more than what is prescribed for me.

13 And he is in one [mind], and who can resist him? And his own soul has a desire, and he will do [it].

14 For he will carry out completely what is prescribed for me, And things like these are many with him.

15 That is why I feel disturbed because of him;

I show myself attentive and am in dread of him.

16 Even God himself has made my heart timid.

And the Almighty himself has disturbed me.

17 For I have not been put to silence because of darkness, Nor because gloom has covered my own face.

"Why is it that times have not been stored up by the Almighty himself.

And the very ones knowing him have not beheld his days?

2 There are those who move back boundary marks;

A drove they have snatched away, that they may shepherd [it].

3 They drive off even the male ass of fatherless boys;

They seize the widow's bull

as a pledge. 4 They turn aside the poor ones from the way;

At the same time the afflicted of the earth have kept themselves hidden.

5 Look! [As] zebras in the wilderness

They have gone forth in their activity, looking for food. The desert plain [gives] to each one bread for the boys.

6 In the field its fodder they harvest.

And the vineyard of the wicked one they hastily despoil.

7 Naked, they pass the night without a garment.

And without any covering in the cold. 8 From the rainstorm of the mountains they get drenched. And because there is no shelter they have to hug a rock.

9 They snatch away a fatherless boy even from the breast, And what is on the afflicted one they take as a pledge.

10 Naked, they have to go about without a garment, And, hungry, they have to carry the reaped ears. 11 Between the terrace walls they pass the noontime;

Wine presses they have to tread, and yet they go thirsty.

12 From out of the city the dying keep groaning.

And the soul of deadly wounded ones cries for help; And God himself considers

[it] not as anything improper.

13 As for them, they proved to be among the rebels against light: They did not recognize its wavs. And they did not dwell in its roadways.

14 At daylight the murderer gets He proceeds to slay the afflicted

He will not turn toward the way of the vineyards.

20 The womb will forget him, the maggot will sweetly suck him.

He will be remembered no more.

And unrighteousness will be broken just like a tree.

21 He is having dealings with a barren woman who does not bear. And with a widow, to whom he does no good.

22 And he will certainly draw away strong people by his power:

He will rise up and not be sure of his life. 23 He will grant him to become confident that he may support himself;

And his eyes will be upon their ways.

24 They have become high up a little while, then they are no more.

And they have been brought low; like everyone else they are plucked off,

And like the head of an ear of grain they are cut off. 25 So really now, who will make me out a liar Or reduce my word to nothing?"

25 And Bil'dad the Shu'hite proceeded to answer and say: 2 "Rulership and dreadfulness are

And a son of man, who is a worm!"

And Job proceeded to answer 26 and say:

2 "O how much help you have been to one without power! O [how] you have saved an arm that is without strength! 3 How much you have advised one that is without wisdom, And you have made practical wisdom itself known to the gliding serpent. 14 Look! These are the fringes of his ways.

And what a whisper of a matter has been heard of him!

But of his mighty thunder who can show an understanding?"

And Job proceeded again to lift up his proverbial utterance and went on to say:

Stone in the gloom and deep shadow.

4 He has sunk a shaft far from where [people] reside as Places forgotten far from the foot:

Some of mortal men have swung down, they have dangled.

5 As for the earth, out of it food goes forth:

But underneath it, it has been upturned as if by fire.

6 Its stones are the place of the sapphire, And it has gold dust.

7 A pathway-no bird of prey has known it.

Nor has the eye of a black kite caught sight of it.

8 The majestic wild beasts have not trodden it down solid: The young lion has not paced over it.

9 Upon the flint he has thrust out his hand:

He has overthrown mountains from [their] root;

10 Into the rocks he has channeled water-filled galleries. And all precious things his eye has seen.

11 The places from which rivers trickled he has dammed up, And the concealed thing he brings forth to the light.

And it will whirl him away 12 But wisdom-where can it be found. And where, now, is the place of understanding?

13 Mortal man has not come to know its valuation.

And it is not found in the land of those living.

14 The watery deep itself has said, 'It is not in me!'

The sea too has said. 'It is not with me!'

15 Pure gold cannot be given in exchange for it.

And silver cannot be weighed out as its price.

16 It cannot be paid for with gold of O'phir.

With the rare onvx stone and the sapphire.

17 Gold and glass cannot be compared to it.

Nor is any vessel of refined gold an exchange for it. 18 Coral and rock crystal themselves will not be mentioned. But a bagful of wisdom is worth more than [one full of] pearls.

19 The topaz of Cush cannot be compared to it:

It cannot be paid for even with gold in its purity.

20 But wisdom itself-from where does it come. And where, now, is the place of understanding? 21 It has been hidden even from the eyes of everyone alive, And from the flying creatures of the heavens it has been concealed. 22 Destruction and death themselves have said.

With our ears we have heard a report of it.'

23 God is the One who has understood its way. And he himself has known its place, 24 For he himself looks to the very ends of the earth: Under the whole heavens he sees.

7 And it came about after Jehovah had spoken these words to Job. that Jehovah proceeded to say to El'i phaz the Te'man ite:

"My anger has grown hot against you and your two companions, for you men have not spoken concerning me what is truthful as has my servant Job. 8 And now take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job, and you men must offer up a burnt sacrifice in your own behalf; and Job my servant will himself pray for you. His face only I shall accept so as not to commit disgraceful folly with you, for you have not spoken concerning me what is truthful, as has my servant Job."

9 Accordingly El'i-phaz the Te'man-ite and Bil'dad the Shu'hite [and] Zo'phar the Na'a·ma·thite went and did just as Jehovah had spoken to them; and so Jehovah accepted Job's face.

10 And Jehovah himself turned back the captive condition of Job when he prayed in behalf of his companions, and Jehovah began to give in addition all that had been Job's, in double amount. 11 And there kept coming to him all his brothers and all his sisters and all those formerly knowing him, and they began to eat bread with him in his house and to sympathize with him and to comfort him over all the calamity that Jehovah had let come upon him; and they proceeded each one to give him a piece of money and each one a gold ring.

12 As for Jehovah, he blessed the end of Job afterward more than his beginning, so that he came to have fourteen thousand sheep and six thousand camels and a thousand spans of cattle and a thousand she-asses. 13 He also came to have seven sons and three daughters. 14 And he went calling the name of the first Je mi'mah and the name of the second Ke-

PSALMS

BOOK ONE (Psalms 1 - 41)

Happy is the man that has not walked in the counsel of the wicked ones.

And in the way of sinners has not stood.

And in the seat of ridiculers has not sat. 2 But his delight is in the law of Jehovah.

And in his law he reads in an undertone day and night.

3 And he will certainly become like a tree planted by streams of water,

That gives its own fruit in its season

And the foliage of which does not wither.

And everything he does will succeed.

4 The wicked are not like that, But are like the chaff that the wind drives away.

5 That is why the wicked ones will not stand up in the judgment.

Nor sinners in the assembly of righteous ones.

6 For Jehovah is taking knowledge of the way of righteous ones, But the very way of wicked ones will perish.

Why have the nations been in tumult

Against Jehovah and against his anointed one.

3 [Saying:] "Let us tear their bands apart And cast their cords away from us!"

4 The very One sitting in the heavens will laugh: Jehovah himself will hold them in derision.

5 At that time he will speak to them in his anger

And in his hot displeasure he will disturb them.

6 [Saying:] "I, even I, have installed my king

Upon Zion, my holy mountain." 7 Let me refer to the decree of Jehovah: He has said to me: "You are my son: I, today, I have become your father.

8 Ask of me, that I may give nations as your inheritance And the ends of the earth as your own possession.

9 You will break them with an iron scepter,

As though a potter's vessel you will dash them to pieces."

10 And now, O kings, exercise insight:

Let yourselves be corrected. O judges of the earth.

To my sayings do give ear. O Jehovah:

Do understand my sighing. 2 Do pay attention to the sound of my cry for help,

O my King and my God, because to you I pray.

3 O Jehovah, in the morning you will hear my voice:

In the morning I shall address myself to you and be on the watch.

4 For you are not a God taking delight in wickedness:

No one bad may reside for any time with you.

5 No boasters may take their stand in front of your eyes. You do hate all those practicing what is hurtful:

6 You will destroy those speaking a lie.

A man of bloodshed and deception Jehovah detests.

7 As for me, in the abundance of your loving-kindness

I shall come into your house, I shall bow down toward of you. 8 O Jehovah, lead me in your righteousness by reason of my foes:

Make your way smooth before

9 For in their mouth there is nothing trustworthy;

Their inward part is adversity indeed.

Their throat is an opened burial place:

A smooth tongue they use. 10 God will certainly hold them guilty:

They will fall due to their own counsels.

In the multitude of their transgressions let there be a dispersing of them,

Because they have rebelled against you.

11 But all those taking refuge in you will rejoice:

To time indefinite they will cry out joyfully. And you will block approach to them.

And those loving your name will exult in you.

12 For you yourself will bless anyone righteous, O Jehovah; As with a large shield, with approval you will surround them.

To the director on stringed instruments on the lower octave. A melody of David.

O Jehovah, do not in your anger reprove me. And do not in your rage correct me.

2 Show me favor, O Jehovah, for I am fading away.

Heal me, O Jehovah, for my bones have been disturbed. 3 Yes, my own soul has been very much disturbed;

And you, O Jehovah-how long? 4 Do return, O Jehovah, do rescue

my soul: Save me for the sake of your loving-kindness.

They will turn back, they will be ashamed instantly.

A dirge of David that he sang to Jehovah concerning the words of Cush the Ben'ja.min.ite.

O Jehovah my God, in you I have taken refuge.

Save me from all those persecuting me and deliver me.

Judge me. O Jehovah, according to my righteousness And according to my integrity wicked ones come to an end. And may you establish the righteous one:

And God as righteous is testing out heart and kidneys.

11 God is a righteous Judge. And God is hurling denunciations every day.

12 If anyone will not return. His sword he will sharpen.

His bow he will certainly bend, and he will make it ready [for shooting].

13 And for himself he must prepare the instruments of death:

His arrows he will make flaming ones.

14 Look! There is one that is pregnant with what is hurtful, And he has conceived trouble and is bound to give birth to falsehood.

15 A pit he has excavated, and he proceeded to dig it: But he will fall into the hole

[that] he went making.

16 His trouble will return upon his own head.

And upon the crown of his head his own violence will descend.

17 I shall laud Jehovah according to his righteousness.

And I will make melody to the name of Jehovah the Most High.

To the director upon the Git'tith. A melody of David.

O Jehovah our Lord, how majestic your name is in all the earth.

You whose dignity is recounted above the heavens!

PSALMS 7:7-9:3

2 Out of the mouth of children and sucklings you have founded strength.

On account of those showing hostility to you,

So as to make the enemy and the one taking his vengeance desist.

3 When I see your heavens, the works of your fingers. The moon and the stars that you have prepared,

4 What is mortal man that you keep him in mind.

> And the son of earthling man that you take care of him?

5 You also proceeded to make him a little less than godlike ones.

And with glory and splendor you then crowned him.

6 You make him dominate over the works of your hands; Everything you have put under his feet:

7 Small cattle and oxen, all of them.

And also the beasts of the open field. 8 The birds of heaven and the fish of the sea. Anything passing through the paths of the seas. 9 O Jehovah our Lord, how maiestic your name is in all the earth! To the director upon Muth-lab'ben.

His own eves behold, his own beaming eves examine the sons of men.

5 Jehovah himself examines the righteous one as well as the wicked one.

And anyone loving violence His soul certainly hates.

6 He will rain down upon the wicked ones traps, fire and sulphur

And a scorching wind, as the portion of their cup.

7 For Jehovah is righteous; he does love righteous acts. The upright are the ones that will behold his face.

To the director on the lower octave. A melody of David.

Do save [me], O Jehovah, for the loval one has come to an end:

For faithful people have vanished from the sons of men.

2 Untruth they keep speaking one to the other:

With a smooth lip they keep speaking even with a double heart.

3 Jehovah will cut off all smooth lips. The tongue speaking great things. 4 Those who have said: "With our tongue we shall prevail.

Our lips are with us. Who will be a master to us?" 5 "Because of the despoiling of the afflicted ones, because of the sighing of the poor ones. I shall at this time arise," says Jehovah.

"I shall put [him] in safety from anyone that puffs at him."

How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

18 I shall have affection for you, O Jehovah my strength.

2 Jehovah is my crag and my stronghold and the Provider of escape for me.

My God is my rock. I shall take refuge in him,

My shield and my horn of salvation, my secure height.

4 The ropes of death encircled me; Flash floods of good-fornothing [men] also kept terrifying me.

5 The very ropes of She'ol surrounded me:

The snares of death confronted me.

6 In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah. And to my God I kept crying for help.

Out of his temple he proceeded to hear my voice.

And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears.

I will set a muzzle as a guard to my own mouth,

As long as anyone wicked is in front of me."

To the director. Mas'kil for the sons of Ko'rah.

42 As the hind that longs for the water streams. So my very soul longs for you,

O God.

2 My soul indeed thirsts for God, for the living God.

When shall I come and appear [before] God?

3 To me my tears have become food day and night, While [thev] say to me all

4 These things I will remember, and I will pour out my soul within me.

For I used to pass along with the throng, I used to walk slowly before them to the house of God,

And why are you boisterous within me?

Wait for God.

To the director. Of the sons of Ko'rah. Mas'kil.

O God, with our ears we have heard. Our forefathers themselves have recounted to us

The activity that you performed in their days, In the days of long ago.

2 You yourself by your hand drove away even nations,

And you proceeded to plant them [instead]. You went breaking national groups and sending them away. 3 For it was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land.

And their own arm was not what brought them salvation.

For it was your right hand and your arm and the light of your face.

Because you took pleasure in

4 You yourself are my King, O God. Command grand salvation for Jacob.

5 By you we shall push our adversaries themselves;

In your name we shall tread us.

I kept trusting And it was not my sword that was saving me.

7 For you saved us from our adversaries.

And those intensely hating us you put to shame. 8 In God we will offer praise all day long. And to time indefinite your name we shall laud. Se'lah.

9 But now you have cast off and keep humiliating us.

And you do not go forth with our armies.

10 You keep making us turn back from the adversary,

And the very ones intensely hating us have pillaged for themselves.

11 You give us up like sheep, as something to eat.

And among the nations you have scattered us.

12 You sell your people for no value at all. And you have made no wealth by the price for them. 13 You set us as a reproach to our neighbors. A derision and jeering to those all around us. 14 You set us as a proverbial saying among the nations, A shaking of the head among the national groups.

15 All day long my humiliation is in front of me. And the shame of my own face has covered me, 16 Due to the voice of the one reproaching and speaking abusively. Because of the enemy and the one taking his revenge. 17 All this is what has come upon us, and we have not forgotten you,

And we have not acted falsely in your covenant.

18 Our heart has not turned faithlessly back, Nor do our footsteps deviate from your path.

down those rising up against 19 For you have crushed us in the place of jackals,

And you cover us over with deep shadow.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God.

Or we spread out our palms to a strange god, 21 Will not God himself search this out? For he is aware of the secrets of the heart. 22 But for your sake we have been killed all day long: We have been accounted as sheep for slaughtering.

23 Do arouse yourself. Why do you keep sleeping, O Jehovah? Do awake. Do not keep casting off forever.

24 Why do you keep your very face concealed? Why do you forget our afflic-tion and our oppression? 25 For our soul has bowed down to the dust itself: Our belly has clung to the very earth.

26 Do arise in assistance to us And redeem us for the sake of your loving-kindness.

To the director upon The Lilies. Of the sons of Ko'rah. Mas'kil. A song of the beloved women.

The scepter of your kingship is a scepter of uprightness.

7 You have loved righteousness and you hate wickedness.

> That is why God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of exultation more than your partners.

8 All your garments are myrrh and aloeswood [and] cassia: Out from the grand ivory palace stringed instruments themselves have made you rejoice.

9 The daughters of kings are among your precious women. The queenly consort has taken her stand at your right hand in gold of O'phir.

10 Listen, O daughter, and see, and incline your ear:

And forget your people and your father's house.

Jehovah is great and much to be praised

In the city of our God, [in] his holy mountain.

On a harp I shall open up my riddle.

5 Why should I be afraid in the days of evil. [When] the very error of my supplanters surrounds me?

6 Those who are trusting in their means of maintenance.

And who keep boasting about the abundance of their riches.

7 Not one of them can by any means redeem even a brother.

Nor give to God a ransom for him:

To the director. A melody of David. When Nathan the prophet came in to him after he had had relations with Bath-she'ba.

51 Show me favor, O God, according to your loving-kindness.

According to the abundance of your mercies wipe out my transgressions.

2 Thoroughly wash me from my error.

And cleanse me even from my sin.

3 For my transgressions I myself know,

And my sin is in front of me

And my sin is in front of me constantly.

4 Against you, you alone, I have sinned,

And what is bad in your eyes
I have done,

In order that you may prove to be righteous when you speak,

That you may be in the clear when you judge.

5 Look! With error I was brought forth with birth pains,

And in sin my mother conceived me.

6 Look! You have taken delight in truthfulness itself in the inward parts:

And in the secret self may you cause me to know sheer wisdom.

7 May you purify me from sin with hyssop, that I may be clean;

May you wash me, that I may become whiter even than snow

8 May you cause me to hear exultation and rejoicing,

That the bones that you have crushed may be joyful.

9 Conceal your face from my sins, And wipe out even all my errors.

10 Create in me even a pure heart, O God.

And put within me a new spirit, a steadfast one.

11 Do not throw me away from before your face; And your holy spirit O do not take away from me.

12 Do restore to me the exultation of salvation by you, And may you support me even with a willing spirit.

13 I will teach transgressors your ways.

That sinners themselves may turn right back to you.

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God the God of my salvation.

That my tongue may joyfully tell about your righteousness.

15 O Jehovah, may you open these lips of mine.

That my own mouth may tell forth your praise.

16 For you do not take delight in sacrifice—otherwise I would give [it]:

In whole burnt offering you do not find pleasure.

17 The sacrifices to God are a broken spirit;

A heart broken and crushed, O God, you will not despise. 18 In your good will do deal well down forever:

He will knock you down and tear you away from [your] tent.

And he will certainly root you out of the land of the living ones. Se'lah.

6 And the righteous ones will see [it] and will be afraid, And over him they will laugh.

7 Here is the able-bodied man that does not put God as his fortress,

But that trusts in the abundance of his riches,

That takes shelter in adversities by him.

8 But I shall be like a luxuriant olive tree in God's house:

of your loyal ones.

9 I will laud you to time indefinite, for you have taken action; And I shall hope in your name, because it is good, in front To the director over Ma'ha.lath. Mas'kil. Of David.

53 The senseless one has said in his heart:

"There is no Jehovah."

They have acted ruinously and have acted detestably in unrighteousness;

There is no one doing good.

2 As for God, he has looked down from heaven itself upon the sons of men,

To see whether there exists anyone having insight, anyone seeking Jehovah.

3 They have all of them turned back, they are [all] alike corrupt; There is no one doing good,

Not even one.

4 Have none of the practicers of what is hurtful got knowledge,

Eating up my people as they have eaten bread?

They have not called even upon Jehovah.

5 There they were filled with a great dread,

Where there had proved to be no dread:

For God himself will certainly scatter the bones of anyone camping against you.

You will certainly put [them] to shame, for Jehovah himself has rejected them.

63 O God, you are my God. I keep looking for you. My soul does thirst for you.

For you my flesh has grown faint [with longing]

In a land dry and exhausted, where there is no water.

2 Thus I have beheld you in the holy place.

At seeing your strength and your glory.

3 Because your loving-kindness is better than life My own lips will commend you.

4 Thus I shall bless you during my lifetime:

In your name I shall raise my palms.

A melody of A'saph.

70 O God, the nations have come into your inheritance: They have defiled your holy temple:

They have laid Jerusalem in a heap of ruins.

2 They have given the dead body of your servants as food to the fowls of the heavens, The flesh of your loval ones to the wild beasts of the earth.

3 They have poured out their blood like water

All around Jerusalem, and there is no one to do the burving.

4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors. A derision and a jeering to those round about us.

5 How long, O Jehovah, will you be incensed? Forever? How long will your ardor burn just like fire?

6 Pour out your rage upon the nations that have not known you.

And upon the kingdoms that have not called upon your own name.

7 For they have eaten up Jacob. And they have caused his own abiding place to be desolated.

8 Do not remember against us the errors of ancestors. Hurry! Let your mercies confront us. For we have become greatly impoverished.

9 Help us. O God of our salvation. For the sake of the glory of your name:

And deliver us and cover over our sins on account of your name.

10 Why should the nations say: "Where is their God?" Among the nations let there be known before our eyes The avenging of the blood of your servants that has been shed.

11 May the sighing of the prisoner come in even before you. According to the greatness of your arm preserve those appointed to death.

12 And repay to our neighbors seven times into their bosom Their reproach with which they have reproached you, O Jehovah.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be joyful. Let the sea thunder and that which fills it.

At the same time let all the trees of the forest break out joyfully

13 Before Jehovah. For he has

For he has come to judge the earth.

He will judge the productive land with righteousness And the peoples with his faithfulness.

Jehovah himself has become king! Let the earth be joy-

Let the many islands rejoice. 2 Clouds and thick gloom are all around him;

Righteousness and judgment are the established place of his throne.

3 Before him a very fire goes, And it consumes his adversaries all around.

4 His lightnings lighted up the productive land: The earth saw and came to be in severe pains.

5 The mountains themselves proceeded to melt just like wax on account of Jehovah.

On account of the Lord of the whole earth. 6 The heavens have told forth his righteousness. And all the peoples have seen his glory.

joice.

And the dependent towns of Judah began to be joyful By reason of your judicial decisions, O Jehovah

9 For you, O Jehovah, are the Most High over all the earth;

You are very high in your ascent over all other gods. 10 O you lovers of Jehovah, hate what is bad. He is guarding the souls of his loyal ones:

Out of the hand of the wicked ones he delivers them. 11 Light itself has flashed up for the righteous one. And rejoicing even for the ones upright in heart. 12 Rejoice in Jehovah, O you righteous ones,

And give thanks to his holy memorial.

A melody. 98 Sing to Jehovah a new song, For wonderful are the things that he has done.

His right hand, even his holy arm, has gained salvation for him.

2 Jehovah has made his salvation known;

In the eyes of the nations he has revealed his righteous-

3 He has remembered his lovingkindness and his faithfulness to the house of Israel.

Jehovah himself has become king. Let the peoples be agitated. He is sitting upon the cher-

ubs. Let the earth quiver.

2 Jehovah is great in Zion, And he is high over all the peoples.

3 Let them laud your name. Great and fear-inspiring, holy it is.

4 And with the strength of a king judgment he has loved. You yourself have firmly established uprightness.

Judgment and righteousness in Jacob are what you yourself have effected.

5 Exalt Jehovah our God and bow down yourselves at his footstool:

He is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests,

And Samuel was among those calling upon his name. They were calling to Jehovah, and he himself kept answering them.

7 In the pillar of cloud he continued speaking to them.

They kept his reminders and the regulation that he gave to them.

8 O Jehovah our God, you yourself answered them.

A God granting pardon you proved to be to them,

And executing vengeance against their notorious deeds.

9 Exalt Jehovah our God And bow down yourselves at his holy mountain. For Jehovah our God is holy. A melody of thanksgiving.

100 Shout in triumph to Jehovah. all [you people of] the earth.

2 Serve Jehovah with rejoicing. Come in before him with a joyful cry.

3 Know that Jehovah is God. It is he that has made us, and not we ourselves.

We arel his people and the sheep of his pasturage.

4 Come into his gates with thanks-Into his courtyards with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name.

5 For Jehovah is good: His loving-kindness is to time

Of David, A melody.

About loving-kindness and judgment I will sing. To you, O Jehovah, I will make melody.

2 I will act with discretion in a faultless way.

> When will you come to me? I shall walk about in the integrity of my heart inside my house.

3 I shall not set in front of my eyes any good-for-nothing thing.

The doing of those who fall away I have hated; It does not cling to me.

4 A crooked heart departs from me: Nothing bad do I know.

5 Anyone slandering his companion in secrecy, Him I silence.

Anyone of haughty eyes and of arrogant heart, Him I cannot endure.

6 My eyes are upon the faithful ones of the earth,

That they may dwell with me. The one walking in a faultless way,

102 O Jehovah, do hear my praver:

And to you may my own cry for help come.

2 Do not conceal your face from me on the day that I am in sore straits.

Incline to me your ear: On the day that I call, hurry, answer me.

3 For my days have come to an end just like smoke.

And my very bones have been made red-hot just like a fireplace.

4 My heart has been struck just like vegetation and is dried

I have become like a little owl of desolated places.

up Zion: He must appear in his glory. 17 He will certainly turn to the prayer of those stripped [of everything], And not despise their prayer.

3 It is the foolishness of an earthling man that distorts his way, and so his heart becomes enraged against Jehovah himself.

4 Wealth is what adds many companions, but one that is lowly gets separated even from his companion.

5 A false witness will not be free from punishment, and he that launches forth lies will not escape.

6 Many are those who soften the face of a noble, and everybody is a companion to the man making gifts.

7 The brothers of one of little means have all hated him. How much farther have his personal friends kept away from him! He is pursuing with things to say: they are not.

5 Better is it to hear the rebuke man hearing the song of the stupid ones 6 For as the sound of thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of the stupid one; and this too is vanity. 7 For mere oppression may make a wise one act crazy, and a gift can destroy the heart.

8 Better is the end afterward of a matter than its beginning. Better hurry yourself in your spirit to become offended, for the taking of offense is what rests in the much, nor show yourself excessively wise. Why should you cause desolation to yourself? 17 Do not be wicked overmuch, nor become foolish. Why should you die when it is not your time? 18 It is better that you should take hold of the one, but from the other also do not withdraw your hand; for he that fears God will go forth with them all.

19 Wisdom itself is stronger for the wise one than ten men in power who happened to be in a city. 20 For there is no man righteous in the earth that keeps doing good and does not sin.

21 Also, do not give your heart to all the words that people may speak, that you may not hear your servant calling down evil upon you. 22 For your own heart well knows even many times that you, even you, have called down evil upon others.

23 All this I have tested with wisdom. I said: "I will become wise." But it was far from me. 24 What has come to be is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can neither is there any power of confind it out? 25 I myself turned trol in the day of death; nor is around, even my heart did, to know and to explore and to search for wisdom and the reason of things, and to know about the wickedness of stupidity and the foolishness of madness; 26 and I was finding out: More bitter than death [I found] the woman who is herself nets for hunting and whose heart is dragnets [and] whose hands are fetters. One is good before the [true] God if one escapes from her, but one is sinning if one is the holy place itself and be forcaptured by her.

27 "See! This I have found." said the congregator, "one thing [taken] after another, to find out bad work has not been executed the sumup, 28 which my soul has continuously sought, but I have not the sons of men has become fully found. One man out of a thousand set in them to do bad. 12 Al-I have found, but a woman among though a sinner may be doing bad righteous one perishing in his | This only I have found, that the righteousness, and there exists the [true] God made mankind upright, wicked one continuing long in his but they themselves have sought out many plans."

8 Who is there like the wise one? And who is there knowing the interpretation of a thing? The wisdom of a man itself causes his face to shine, and even the sternness of his face is changed [for the hetter].

2 I [say:] "Keep the very order of the king, and that out of regard for the oath of God. 3 Do not hurry yourself, that you may go out from before him. Do not stand in a bad thing. For all that he delights [to do] he will do, 4 because the word of the king is the power of control: and who may say to him: 'What are you doing?' "

5 He that is keeping the commandment will not know any calamitous thing, and the wise heart will know both time and judgment. 6 For there exists a time and judgment even for every affair, because the calamity of mankind is abundant upon them. 7 For there is no one knowing what will come to be, because who can tell him just how it will come to be?

8 There is no man having power over the spirit to restrain the spirit; trol in the day of death: nor is there any discharge in the war. And wickedness will provide no escape for those indulging in it.

9 All this I have seen, and there was an applying of my heart to every work that has been done under the sun, [during] the time that man has dominated man to his injury. 10 But, though this is so. I have seen the wicked ones being buried, how they came in and how they would go away from gotten in the city where they acted that way. This too is vanity.

if for the work of the righteous ones. I said that this too is vanity.

15 And I myself commended rejoicing, because mankind have nothing better under the sun than to eat and drink and rejoice, and that it should accompany them in their hard work for the days of their life, which the [true] God has given them under the sun. 16 In accord with this I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the occupation that is carried on in the earth, because there is one seeing no sleep with his eyes, either by day or by night.

17 And I saw all the work of the been done under the sun; however much mankind keep working hard to seek, yet they do not find out. And even if they should say they are wise enough to know, they would be unable to find out.

9 For I took all this to my heart, even to search out all this, that the righteous ones and the wise ones and their works are in the the hate that were all prior to them. 3 This is what is calamitous in all when it falls upon them suddenly.

7 Go, eat your food with rejoicing and drink your wine with a good heart, because already the [true] God has found pleasure in your works. 8 On every occasion let your garments prove to be white. and let oil not be lacking upon your head. 9 See life with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life that He has given [true] God, how mankind are not you under the sun, all the days of able to find out the work that has your vanity, for that is your portion in life and in your hard work with which you are working hard under the sun. 10 All that your hand finds to do, do with your very power, for there is no work nor devising nor knowledge nor wisdom in She'ol, the place to which you are going.

The good one is in an evil net, and like birds that the same as the sinner; the one are being taken in a trap, so the swearing is the same as whoever sons of men themselves are being has been afraid of a sworn oath, ensnared at a calamitous time,

13 Also this I saw as respects wisdom under the sun-and it was blunt and someone has not whetted great to me: 14 There was a little its edge, then he will exert his own city, and the men in it were few: and there came to it a great king, and he surrounded it and built against it great strongholds. 15 And there was found in it a man, needy [but] wise, and that one provided escape for the city by his wisdom. But no man remembered that needy man, 16 And I myself said: "Wisdom is better than mightiness; yet the wisdom of the needy one is despised, and his words are not listened to."

17 The words of the wise ones in quietness are more to be heard than the cry of one ruling among stupid people.

The vision of Isaiah the son of | 4 Woe to the sinful nation, the A'moz that he visioned con- people heavy with error, an evilcerning Judah and Jerusalem in doing seed, ruinous sons! They have left Jehovah, they have treated the Holy One of Israel with disrespect, they have turned backwards. 5 Where else will you be struck still O earth, for Jehovah himself has more, in that you add more respoken: "Sons I have brought up volt? The whole head is in a sick and raised, but they themselves condition, and the whole heart is have revolted against me. 3 A feeble. 6 From the sole of the foot bull well knows its buyer, and the even to the head there is no sound spot in it. 7 Your land is a desolation, your | scarlet, they will be made white cities are burned with fire: your ground-right in front of you strangers are eating it up, and the desolation is like an overthrow by strangers. 8 And the daughter of Zion has been left remaining like a booth in a vineyard, like a lookout hut in a field of cucumbers, like a blockaded city. 9 Unless Jehovah very mouth of Jehovah has spoken of armies himself had left remaining to us just a few survivors, we should have become just like Sod'om, we should have resembled Gomor'rah itself.

10 Hear the word of Jehovah. you dictators of Sod'om. Give ear to the law of our God, you people of Go·mor'rah. 11 "Of what benefit to me is the multitude of your sacrifices?" says Jehovah. "I have had enough of whole burnt offerings of rams and the fat of wellfed animals; and in the blood of young bulls and male lambs and he-goats I have taken no delight. 12 When you people keep coming in to see my face, who is it that has required this from your hand, to trample my courtyards? 13 Stop bringing in any more valueless grain offerings. Incense—it is something detestable to me. New moon and sabbath, the calling of a convention-I cannot put up with the [use of] uncanny power along with the solemn assembly. 14 Your new moons and your festal seasons my soul has hated. To me they have become a burden; I have become tired of bearing [them]. 15 And when you spread out your palms, I hide my eyes from you. Even though you make many prayers, I am not listening; with bloodshed Your very hands have become filled. 16 Wash yourselves; make vourselves clean: remove the badness of your dealings from in front of my eyes; cease to do bad. 17 Learn to do good; search for justice; set right the oppressor; render judgment for the fatherless boy; plead the cause of the widow."

18 "Come, now, you people, and let us set matters straight between of you people should prove to be as of them will certainly go up in just like snow: though they should be red like crimson cloth, they will become even like wool. 19 If you people show willingness and do listen, the good of the land you will eat. 20 But if you people refuse and are actually rebellious, with a sword you will be eaten up; for the fiti."

21 O how the faithful town has become a prostitute! She was full of justice: righteousness itself used to lodge in her, but now murderers. 22 Your silver itself has become scummy dross. Your wheat beer is diluted with water. 23 Your princes are stubborn and partners with thieves. Every one of them is a lover of a bribe and a chaser after gifts. For a fatherless boy they do not render judgment; and even the legal case of a widow does not get admittance to them.

24 Therefore the utterance of the [true] Lord, Jehovah of armies, the Powerful One of Israel, is: "Aha! I shall relieve myself of my adversaries, and I will avenge myself on my enemies. 25 And I will turn back my hand upon you, and I shall smelt away your scummy dross as with lye, and I will remove all your waste products. 26 And I will bring back again judges for you as at the first, and counselors for you as at the start. After this you will be called City of Righteousness, Faithful Town. 27 With justice Zion herself will be redeemed, and those returning of her, with righteousness. 28 And the crash of revolters and that of sinful ones will be at the same time. and those leaving Jehovah will come to their finish. 29 For they will be ashamed of the mighty trees that you people desired, and you will be abashed because of the gardens that you have chosen. 30 For you will become like a big tree the foliage of which is withering, and like a garden that has no water. 31 And the vigorous man will certainly become tow, and the product us," says Jehovah, "Though the sins of his activity a spark; and both

Swords into plowshares, Idolatry to cease

2 The thing that Isaiah the son of A'moz visioned concerning Judah and Jerusalem: 2 And it must occur in the final part of the days [that] the mountain of the house of Jehovah will become firmly established above the top of the mountains, and it will certainly be lifted up above the hills; and to it all the nations must stream. 3 And many peoples will certainly go and say: "Come, you people, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah. to the house of the God of Jacob: and he will instruct us about his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For out of Zion law will go forth, and the word of Jehovah out of Jerusalem. 4 And he will certainly render judgment among the nations and set matters straight respecting many peoples. And they will have to beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning shears. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more.

5 O men of the house of Jacob come and let us walk in the light of Jehovah

6 For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob, For they have become full of what is from the East, and they are practicers of magic like the Phi-lis'tines, and with the children of foreigners they abound. 7 And their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no limit to their treasures. And their land is filled with horses, and there is no limit to their chariots. 8 And their land is filled with valueless gods. in that day.

18 And the valueless gods themselves will pass away completely. 19 And people will enter into the caves of the rocks and into the holes of the dust because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah and from his splendid superiority, when he rises up for the earth to suffer shocks. 20 In that day the earthling man will throw his worthless gods of silver and his valueless gods of gold that they had made for him to bow before to the shrewmice and to the bats, 21 in order to enter into the holes in the rocks and into the clefts of the crags, because of the dreadfulness of Jehovah and from his splendid superiority, when he rises up for the earth to suffer shocks. 22 For your own sakes. hold off from the earthling man, whose breath is in his nostrils, for on what basis is he himself to be taken into account?

Then he said: "Until the cities actually crash in ruins, to the head of Damascus is Re'zin: be without an inhabitant, and the and within just sixty-five years houses be without earthling man, and the ground itself is ruined into a desolation: 12 and Jehovah actually removes earthling men far away, and the deserted condition does become very extensive in the midst of the land. 13 And there will still be in it a tenth, and it must again become something for burning down, like a big tree and 11 "Ask for yourself a sign from like a massive tree in which, when Jehovah your God, making it as there is a cutting down [of them]. there is a stump; a holy seed will as the upper regions." 12 But be the stump of it."

7 Now it came about in the days of A'haz the son of Jo'tham the son of Uz·zi'ah, the king of Judah, that Re'zin the king of Syria and Pe'kah the son of Rem·a·li'ah, the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem for war against it, and he proved unable to war against it. 2 And a report was made to the house of David, saying: "Syria has leaned upon E'phra·im."

And his heart and the heart of his people began to quiver, like the quivering of the trees of the forest because of a wind.

And his name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace. 7 To the abundance of the princely rule and to peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom in order to establish it firmly and to sustain it by means of justice and by means of righteousness, from now on and to time indefinite. The very zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.

8 There was a word that Jehovah sent against Jacob, and it fell upon Israel. 9 And the people will certainly know [it], even all of them. E'phra im and the inhabitant of Sa·mar'i·a, because of [their] haughtiness and because of [their] insolence of heart in saying: 10 "Bricks are what have fallen, but with hewn stone we shall build. And E'sar-had'don his son began to reign in place of him.

38 In those days Hez-e-ki'ah got sick to the point of dying. ISAIAH 38: 3-39:1

4 And the word of Jehovah now occurred to Isaiah, saying: 5 "Go, and you must say to Hez·e·ki'ah, 'This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather has said: "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Here I am adding onto your days fifteen years; 6 and out of the palm of the king of As syr'i a I shall deliver you and this city, and I will defend this city. 7 And this is the sign for you from Jehovah that Jehovah will perform this word that he has spoken: 8 Here I am making the shadow of the steps that had gone down on the steps [of the stairs] of A'haz by the sun retrace backward ten steps."'" And the sun gradually went back ten steps on the steps fof the stairs | that it had gone down.

9 A writing of Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah, when he got sick and revived from his sickness.

10 I myself said: "In the midst of my days I will go into the gates of She'ol.

I must be deprived of the remainder of my years."

11 I have said: "I shall not see Jah, even Jah, in the land of the living ones.

I shall no more look on mankind—with the inhabitants of [the land of] cessation.

12 My own habitation has been pulled out and removed from me like the tent of shepherds.

I have rolled up my life just like a loom worker:

One proceeds to cut me off from the very threads of the warp.

There proved to be nothing that Hez·e·ki'ah did not show them in his own house and in all his dominion.

3 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki'ah and said to him: "What did these men say, and from where did they proceed to come to you?" So Hez-eki'ah said: "From a distant land they came to me, from Babylon." 4 And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?" To this Hez·e·ki'ah said: "Everything that is in my house they saw. There proved to be nothing that I did not show them in my treasures." 5 Isaiah now said to Hez·e·ki'ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah of armies, 6 'Look! Days are coming. and all that is in your own house and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon.' 'Nothing will be left,' Jehovah has said. 7 'And some of your own sons that will come forth from you, to whom you will become father, is with him, and the wage he pays will themselves be taken and actually become court officials in the palace of the king of Babylon."

29 "O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of Jehovah. 30 This is what Jehovah has said, 'WRITE down this man as childless, as an able-bodied man who will not have any success in his days; for from his offspring not a single one will have any success, sitting upon the throne of David and ruling any more in Judah."

23 "Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasturage!" is the utterance of Jehovah.

2 Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said against gone to mourning, the pasture the shepherds who are shepherding my people: "You yourselves have scattered my sheep; and you kept dispersing them, and you have not turned your attention to them."

"Here I am turning my attention upon you for the badness of your dealings," is the utterance of Jehovah.

3 "And I myself shall collect together the remnant of my sheep like slippery places in the gloom, out of all the lands to which I into which they will be pushed and had dispersed them, and I will bring them back to their pasture ground, and they will certainly be calamity, the year of their being fruitful and become many. 4 And given attention," is the utterance I will raise up over them shepherds of Jehovah. 13 "And in the prophwho will actually shepherd them; and they will be afraid no more. neither will they be struck with any terror, and none will be missing," is the utterance of Jehovah.

9 As regards the prophets, my heart has been broken within me. All my bones have begun shaking. I have become like a man that is drunk, and like an able-bodied man whom wine has overcome, because of Jehovah and because of his holy words. 10 For it is with adulterers that the land has become full. For because of the curse the land has grounds of the wilderness have dried up; and their course of action proves to be bad, and their mightiness is not right.

15 Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies has said against the prophets: "Here I am making them poisoned water to drink. For from the prophets of Jerusalem apostasy has gone forth to all the land."

16 This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are prophesying to you people. They are making you become vain. The get my name by means of their vision of their own heart is what they speak-not from the mouth of Jehovah. 17 They are saying again and again to those who are of Ba'al. 28 The prophet with disrespectful of me, 'Jehovah has spoken: "Peace is what you people late the dream; but the one with will come to have." Who has given attention to his word that he might hear it? 19 Look! The windstorm of Jehovah, rage itself, will certainly go forth, even a whirling tempest. Upon the head of the wicked ones it will whirl itself. 20 The anger of Jehovah will not turn back until he will have carried out and until he will have made the ideas of his heart come true. "What does the straw have to do with the grain?" is the utterance of Jehovah.

29 "Is not my word correspondingly like a fire," is the utterance of Jehovah, "and like a forge hammer that smashes the crag?"

30 "Therefore here I am against the prophets," is the utterance of Jehovah, "the ones who are stealing away my words, each one from his companion.'

31 "Here I am against the prophets," is the utterance of Jehovah, "the ones who are employing their tongue that they may utter forth, 'An utterance!'

7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people began to hear Jeremiah speaking these words 34 "Howl, you shepherds, and cry in the house of Jehovah. 8 So it out! And wallow about, you ma- came about that when Jeremiah jestic ones of the flock, because had completed speaking all that Jehovah had commanded [him] | 17 Furthermore, certain ones of the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying: "You will positively die. 9 Why is it that you have prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying. 'Like that in Shi'loh is how this house will become, and this very city will be devastated so as to be without an inhabitant'?" And all the people kept congregating house of Jehovah.

10 In time the princes of Judah got to hear these words, and they house of the king to the house of Jehovah and to sit down in the entrance of the new gate of Jeprophets began to say to the princes and to all the people: "To this man the judgment of death belongs, because he has prophesied concerning this city just as you have heard with your own ears."

12 At that Jeremiah said to all the princes and to all the people: "It was Jehovah that sent me to prophesy concerning this house and concerning this city all the words that you have heard. 13 And now make your ways and your dealings good, and obey the voice of Jehovah your God, and Jehovah will feel regret for the calamity that he has spoken against you. 14 And as for me, here I am in your hand. Do to me according to what is good and according to what is right in your eyes. 15 Only you should by all means know that, if you are putting me to death, it is innocent blood that you are putting upon yourselves and upon this city and upon her inhabitants, for in truth Jehovah did send me to you to speak in your ears all these words."

16 Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: "There is no judgment of death belonging to this man, for it was in the name of Jehovah our God that he spoke to us."

to speak to all the people, then the older men of the land rose up and began saying to all the congregation of the people: 18 "Mi'cah of Mo'resh eth himself happened to be prophesying in the days of Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah and went on to say to all the people of Judah, 'This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "Zion herself will be plowed up as a mere field, and Jerusalem herself themselves about Jeremiah in the will become mere heaps of ruins. and the mountain of the House will be for high places of a forest."' 19 Did Hez·e·ki'ah the king of proceeded to come up from the Judah and all those of Judah by any means put him to death? So we are working up a great calamity against our souls.

20 "And there also happened to be a man prophesying in the name of Jehovah. U-ri'iah the son of She·mai'ah from Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim. And he kept prophesying against this city and against this land in accord with all the words of Jeremiah. 21 And King Je-hoi'a-kim and all his mighty men and all the princes got to hear his words, and the king began seeking to put him to death. When U·ri'jah got to hear [of it] he at once became afraid and ran away and came into Egypt. 22 But King Je-hoi'a-kim sent men to Egypt, El·na'than the son of Ach'bor and other men with him to Egypt. 23 And they proceeded to bring U·ri'jah out from Egypt and to bring him to King Je hoi'a kim, who then struck him down with the sword and cast his dead body into the graveyard of the sons of the people."

24 Moreover, it was the hand of A hi'kam the son of Sha'phan that proved to be with Jeremiah, in order not to give him into the hand of the people to have him put to death.

or In the beginning of the kingdom of Je-hoi'a-kim the son of Jo si'ah, the king of Judah, this

36 Now it came about in the fourth year of Je-hoi'a-kim the son of Jo-si'ah, the king of Judah, that this word occurred to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Take for yourself a roll of a book, and you must write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and against Judah and against all the nations. since the day that I spoke to you. since the days of Jo sl'ah, clear down to this day. 3 Perhaps those of the house of Judah will listen to all the calamity that I am thinking of doing to them, to the end that they may return, each one from his bad way, and that I may actually forgive their error and their sin."

4 And Jeremiah proceeded to call Bar'uch the son of Ne ri'ah that Bar'uch might write at the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of Jehovah that He had spoken to him. on the roll of the book. 5 Then Jeremiah commanded Bar'uch, saving: "I am shut up. I am unable to enter into the house of Jehovah. 6 And you yourself must enter in and read aloud from the roll that you have written at my mouth the words of Jehovah in the ears of the people at the house of Jehovah in the day of fast; and also in the ears of all Judah who are coming in from their cities you should read them aloud. 7 Perhaps their request for favor will fall before Jehovah and they will return, each one from his bad way, for great is the anger and the rage that Jehovah has spoken against this people."

11 And Mi-cai'ah the son of Gem·a·ri'ah the son of Sha'phan got to hear all the words of Jehovah from out of the book. 12 At that he went down to the house of the king, to the dining room of the secretary, and, look! there is where all the princes were sitting, E-lish'a·ma the secretary and De·la'iah the son of She-mai'ah and Elna'than the son of Ach'bor and Gem·a·ri'ah the son of Sha'phan and Zed e ki'ah the son of Han ani'ah and all the other princes. 13 And Mi-cai'ah proceeded to tell them all the words that he had heard when Bar'uch read aloud from the book in the ears of the people.

14 Then all the princes sent out to Bar'uch Je-hu'di the son of Neth-a-ni'ah the son of Shel-emi'ah the son of Cush'i, saving: "The roll from which you read aloud in the ears of the peopletake it in your hand and come." Accordingly Bar'uch the son of Neri'ah took the roll in his hand and came in to them. 15 Then they said to him: "Sit down, please, and read it aloud in our ears." So Bar'uch read aloud in their ears.

16 Now it came about that as soon as they heard all the words, they looked at one another in dread: and they proceeded to say to Bar'uch: "We shall without fail tell the king all these words." 17 And Bar'uch they asked, saving: "Tell

18 Then Bar'uch said to them: "Out of his mouth he kept declaring to me all these words, and I was writing in the book with ink." 19 Finally the princes said to Bar'uch: "Go, conceal yourself, you and Jeremiah, so that no one at all will know where you men are."

And Jehu'di began to read it aloud in the ears of the king and in the ears his offspring and against his servof all the princes standing by the king. 22 And the king was sitting in the winter house, in the ninth month, with a brazier burning before him. 23 Then it came about that as soon as Je hu'di had read three or four page-columns, he proceeded to tear it apart with the secretary's knife, pitching [it] also into the fire that was in the brazier until all the roll ended up in the fire that was in the brazier. 24 And they felt no dread: neither did the king and all his servants. who were listening to all these words, rip their garments apart. 25 And even El na'than and Dela'iah and Gem·a·ri'ah themselves pleaded with the king not to burn the roll, but he did not listen to them. 26 Further, the king commanded Je-rah'me-el the son of the king and Se-rai'ah the son of himself and his servants and the Az'ri·el and Shel·e·mi'ah the son of Ab'de el to get Bar'uch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet. But Jehovah kept them concealed.

32 And Jeremiah himself took another roll and then gave it to Bar'uch the son of Ne ri'ah the secretary, who proceeded to write upon it at the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book that Jehoi'a kim the king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added to them many more words like those.

And King Zed e ki'ah the son of Jo-si'ah began to reign in place of Co-ni'ah the son of Jehoi'a kim, whom Neb · u · chad · rez'zar the king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2 And he people of the land did not listen to the words of Jehovah that he spoke by means of Jeremiah the prophet.

3 And King Zed e ki'ah proceeded to send Je-hu'cal the son curred further to Jeremiah after of Shel·e·mi'ah and Zeph·a·ni'ah the king had burned up the roll the son of Ma a sei'ah the priest with the words that Bar'uch had to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: written at the mouth of Jeremiah, "Pray, please, in our behalf to Jesaving: 28 "Take again for your- hovah our God." 4 And Jeremiah self a roll, another one, and write was coming in and going out into on it all the first words that proved the midst of the people as they to be on the first roll, which Je- had not put him in the house of miah the prophet, saying: 7 "This there many days. is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'This is what you men should say to the king of Judah, the one sending you to me to inquire of me: "Look! 11 And it occurred when the military force of the Chal·de'ans had withdrawn themselves from against Jerusalem because of the military force of Phar'aoh, 12 that Jeremiah began to go forth from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin and to get [his] portion from there in the midst of the people. 13 So it came about when he was in the gate of Benjamin that the officer holding the oversight, whose name was I-ri'jah the QQ And Sheph-a-ti'ah the son of son of Shel·e·mi'ah the son of Han a ni'ah, was there. 14 And King Zed e ki'ah prothese words. For this man is one ceeded to send and take Jeremiah seeking not for the peace of this the prophet to him to the third entryway, which is in the house of Jehovah, and then the king said to Jeremiah: "I am asking something of you. Do not hide from me anything." 15 At this Jeremiah 6 And they proceeded to take said to Zed e ki'ah: "In case I Jeremiah and throw him into the should tell you, will you not without fail put me to death? And in case I advise you, you will not listen yard of the Guard. So they let to me." 16 At that King Zed-e-Jeremiah down by means of ropes, ki'ah swore to Jeremiah in the Now in the cistern there was no place of concealment, saying: "As water, but mire; and Jeremiah Jehovah is alive, who has made for us this soul, I will not put you to death, and I will not give you into o'pi-an, a man who was a eunuch the hand of these men who are seeking for your soul."

17 Jeremiah now said to Zed-eput Jeremiah into the cistern; and ki'ah: "This is what Jehovah, the the king was sitting in the gate God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, 'If you will without fail go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, your soul will also cerand you yourself and your house-18 But if you will not go out to the princes of the king of Babylon, the hand of the Chal-de'ans, and they will actually burn it with fire, and you yourself will not escape out of their hand."

19 Then King Zed·e·ki'ah said to Jeremiah: "I am in fright of the Jews that have fallen away to the Chal·de'ans, for fear that they might give me into their hand and worn-out rags and worn-out pieces with me." 20 But Jeremiah said:

"They will do no such giving. Obey, 39 In the ninth year of Zed enlease, the voice of Jehovah in 199 ki'ah the king of Judah, in the please, the voice of Jehovah in what I am speaking to you, and it tenth month, Neb-u-chad-rez'zar will go well with you, and your soul will continue to live. 21 But if you are refusing to go out, this is the thing that Jehovah has caused me to see: 22 And, look! all the women that have been left remaining in the house of the king of Judah are being brought out to the princes of the king of Babylon, and they are saying,

'The men at peace with you have allured you and prevailed over you.

They have caused your foot to sink down into the very ooze; they have retreated in the opposite direction.'

23 And all your wives and your sons they are bringing out to the Chal·de'ans, and you yourself will not escape out of their hand, but by the hand of the king of Babylon you will be seized, and because of you this city will be burned with fire."

24 And Zed e ki'ah proceeded to say to Jeremiah: "May no man at all get to know about these things, so that you do not die. 25 And in case the princes hear that I have spoken with you and they actually come in to you and say to you, 'Do tell us, please, What did you speak about to the king? Do not hide anything from us, and we shall not put you to death. And what did the king speak about to you?' 26 you must also say to them, 'I was letting my request for favor fall before the king, that he should not send me back to the house of Je-hon'a than to die there."

27 In time all the princes came in to Jeremiah and began questioning him. In turn, he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they became silent before him, for the matter was not heard. 28 And Jeremiah continued to dwell in the Courtvard of the Guard until the day that Jerusalem was captured. And it occurred just when Jerusalem was captured.

the king of Babylon and all his military force came to Jerusalem and began to lay siege to it.

2 In the eleventh year of Zed eki'ah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken through. 3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon proceeded to come in and sit down in the Middle Gate, [namely,] Ner'galshare'zer, Sam'gar-ne'bo, Sar'sechim. Rab'sa ris. Ner'gal-sha re'zer the Rab'mag and all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon,

4 Now it came about that as soon as Zed·e·ki'ah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, they began to run away and to go out by night from the city by the way of the garden of the king, by the gate between the double wall; and they kept going out by the way of the Ar'a bah. 5 And a military force of the Chal·de'ans went chasing after them, and they got to overtake Zed e ki'ah in the desert plains of Jer'i-cho. Then they took him and brought him up to Neb·u·chadrez'zar the king of Babylon at Rib'lah in the land of Ha'math that he might pronounce upon him judicial decisions. 6 And the king of Babylon proceeded to slaughter the sons of Zed e ki'ah in Rib'lah before his eyes, and all the nobles of Judah the king of Babylon slaughtered. 7 And the eyes of Zed:eki'ah he blinded, after which he bound him with copper fetters, in order to bring him to Babylon.

8 And the house of the king and the houses of the people the Chalde'ans burned with fire, and the walls of Jerusalem they pulled down. 9 And the rest of the people who were left remaining in the city, and the deserters that had fallen away to him, and the rest of the people who were left remaining Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the bodyguard took into exile to Babylon.

And as for you yourselves, gather wine and summer fruits and oil and put [them] in your vessels and dwell in your cities that you have seized."

11 And all the Jews that were in Mo'ab and among the sons of Am'mon and in E'dom and those who were in all the [other] lands, they also heard that the king of Babylon had given a remnant to Judah and that he had commissioned over them Ged a · li'ah the son of A · hi'kam the son of Sha'phan. 12 And all the Jews began to return from all the places to which they had ing into the land of Judah to Ged a li'ah at Miz'pah. And there they began to eat bread together in Miz'pah. 2 Then Ish'ma el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah and the ten men that happened to be with him rose up and struck down Ged ali'ah the son of A hi'kam the son of Sha'phan with the sword. So he put to death the one whom the king of Babylon had commissioned over the land, 3 And all the Jews who happened to be with him, that is, with Ged a · li'ah, in Miz'pah, and the Chal·de'ans who were found there, that is, the men of war. Ish'ma el struck down.

It was the one they had become afraid because of that Ish'ma el the son of Neth ani'ah filled with those slain.

10 Then Ish'ma el took captive all the remnant of the people who were in Miz'pah, the daughters of the king and all the people who were remaining over in Miz'pah. whom Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the bodyguard had put in the custody of Ged a · li'ah the son of A.hi'kam. So Ish'ma el the son of Neth-a-ni'ah took them captive and went off to cross over to the sons of Am'mon.

11 In time Jo ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah and all the chiefs of the military forces who were with him got to hear all the bad that Ish'ma el the son of Neth a ni'ah had done. 12 Consequently they took all the men and went off to fight against Ish'ma el the son of Netha·ni'ah and found him by the abundant waters that were in Gib'e on.

58 This is what Jehovah of armies has said: "The wall of Babylon, although broad, will without fail be demolished; and her gates, although high, will be set aflame with fire. And the peoples will have to toil for simply nothing, and national groups simply for the fire; and they will just tire themselves out."

12 And in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that is, find the nineteenth year of King Neb·u·chad·rez'zar, the king of Babylon, Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. 13 And he provah and the house of the king and every great house he burned with

15 And some of the lowly ones of eleventh year of King Zed e ki'ah, and the rest of the master workmen some of the lowly ones of the land Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the bodyguard let remain as vinedressers and as compulsory laborers.

17 And the copper pillars that belonged to the house of Jehovah and the carriages and the copper sea that was in the house of Jehovah the Chal·de'ans broke to pieces and went carrying all the copper of them to Babylon. 18 And the cans and the shovels and the extinguishers and the bowls and the cups and all the copper utensils with which they used to minister they took. 19 And the basins and the fire holders and the bowls and the cans and the lampstands and the cups and the bowls that were of genuine gold, and those that were of genuine silver, the chief of the bodyguard took. 20 And the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve copper bulls that were under [the sea], the carriages, that King Sol'o-mon had made for the house of Jehovah. There happened to be no weight [taken] of the copper of them-all these articles.

21 And as regards the pillars. eighteen cubits in height was each pillar, and a thread of twelve cubits itself would go around it; and its thickness was four fingerbreadths, it being hollow. 22 And the capital upon it was of copper, and the height of the one capital was five cubits; and as regards the network and the pomegranates upon the capital, all around, the whole was of copper; and the second pillar had just the same as these, also the pomegranates. 23 And the pomegranates came to be ninety-six, on the sides, all the pomegranates being one hundred upon the network round about.

24 Furthermore, the chief of the bodyguard took Se rai'ah the chief priest and Zeph·a·ni'ah the second allowance given him from the king priest and the three doorkeepers, of Babylon, daily as due, until the court official that happened to be his life.

Thus Judah went into exile from off its soil.

28 These are the people whom Neb·u·chad·rez'zar took into exile: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews.

29 In the eighteenth year of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar, from Jerusalem there were eight hundred and thirty-two souls.

30 In the twenty-third year of Neb·u·chad·rez'zar, Neb·u'zarad'an the chief of the bodyguard took Jews into exile, seven hundred and forty-five souls.

All the souls were four thousand and six hundred.

31 At length it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Je hoi'a chin the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twentyfifth day of the month, that E'vilme·ro'dach the king of Babylon, in the year of his becoming king, raised up the head of Je-hoi'a-chin the king of Judah and proceeded to bring him forth from the prison house. 32 And he began to speak with him good things and to put his throne higher than the thrones of the [other] kings that were with him in Babylon. 33 And he took off his prison garments, and he ate bread before him constantly all the days of his life. 34 And as for his allowance, there was a constant 25 and from the city he took one day of his death, all the days of

Their way I shall certainly bring upon their own head."

11 And, look! the man clothed with the linen, at whose hips there was the inkhorn, was bringing back word, saying: "I have done just as you have commanded me."

10 And I continued to see, and, look! upon the expanse that was over the head of the cherubs from over the cherubs over which there was something like sapphire stone, like the appearance of the likeness of a throne, appearing above them. 2 And he proceeded with the linen, at whose hips there to say to the man clothed with the was the recorder's inkhorn. 4 And linen, even to say: "Enter in between the wheelwork, in under the "Pass through the midst of the cherubs, and fill the hollows of both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubs and toss [them] over the city." 6 And it came about, when he commanded the man clothed with the linen, saying: "Take fire from between the wheelwork, from between the cherubs," that he proceeded to enter and stand beside the wheel. 7 Then the cherub thrust his hand out from between the cherubs to the fire that was between the cherubs and carried and put [it] into the hollows of the hands of the one clothed with the linen, who now took [it] and went out. 8 And there was seen belonging to the cherubs the representation of a hand of earthling man under their wings.

9 And I continued to see, and, look! there were four wheels beside the cherubs, one wheel beside the one cherub and one wheel beside the other cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like the glow of a chrysolite stone. 10 And as for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, just as when a wheel proves to be in the midst of a wheel. 11 When they would go, to their four sides they would go. They would not change direction when they went, because the place to which the head would face, after it they would go. They would not change direction when they went. 12 And all their flesh and their backs and their hands and their wings and the wheels were full of eyes all around. The four of them had their wheels. 13 As regards the wheels, to them it was called out in my ears, "O wheelwork!"

18 And the glory of Jehovah proceeded to go forth from over the threshold of the house and to stand still over the cherubs. 19 And the cherubs now lifted up their wings and rose from the earth before my eyes. When they went forth, the wheels also were close alongside them; and they began standing at the eastern entrance of the gate of the house of Jehovah, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them.

And a spirit proceeded to lift me up and bring me to the eastern gate of the house of Jehovah that is facing eastward, and, look! in the entrance of the gate there were twenty-five men, and I got to see in the midst of them Ja·az·a·ni'ah the son of Az'zur and Pel·a·ti'ah the son of Be nai'ah, princes of the people. 2 Then he said to me: "Son of man, these are the men that are the third was the face of a lion, scheming hurtfulness and advising we are the flesh.'

To us it belongs; the land has been given [us] as a thing to possess': 16 therefore say, 'This is what the Lord Jehovah has said: "Although I have put them far away among the nations, and although I have scattered them among the lands, yet I shall become to them a sanctuary for a little while among the lands to which they have come."

17 "Therefore say, 'This is what the Lord Jehovah has said: "I will also collect you from the peoples and gather you from the lands among which you have been scattered, and I will give you the soil of Israel. 18 And they will certainly come there and remove all its disgusting things and all its detestable things out of it. 19 And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I shall put inside them: acts of judgment. 10 By the sword and I shall certainly remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh. 20 in order that they may walk in my own statutes and keep my own judicial decisions and actually carry them out; and they may really become my people and I myself may become their God."

9 "'And as for the prophet, in case he gets fooled and actually speaks a word, I myself, Jehovah, have fooled that prophet; and I will stretch out my hand against him and annihilate him from the midst of my people Israel. 10 And they will have to bear their error. The error of the inquirer will prove to be just the same as the error of the prophet, 11 in order that those of the house of Israel may no more go wandering off from following me and may no more go defiling themselves with all their transgressions. And they must become my people and I myself shall become their God,' is the utterance of the Lord Jehovah."

12 And the word of Jehovah continued to come to me, saving: 13 "Son of man, as regards a land, in case it commits sin against me in acting unfaithfully. I will also stretch out my hand against it and break for it the rods around which ring-shaped loaves are suspended, and I will send upon it famine and cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal." 14 "'And had these three men proved to be in the midst of it. Noah, Daniel and Job, they themselves because of their righteousness would deliver their soul,' is the utterance of the Lord Jehovah."

15 "'Or if I should make injurious wild beasts pass through the land and they actually bereaved it of children and it actually became a desolate waste without anybody passing through on account of the wild beasts, 16 were these three men in the midst of it. as I am alive,' is the utterance of Jehovah." the Lord Jehovah, 'neither sons nor daughters would they deliver; they, himself by me, I, Jehovah, I am delivered and the land itself would become a desolate waste."

17 "'Or were it a sword that I set my face against that man and should bring upon that land, and should I actually say: "Let a sword itself pass through the land," and should I actually cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal. 18 even were these three men in the midst of it, as I am alive,' is the utterance of the Lord Jehovah, 'they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they, only they themselves, would be delivered.'"

Daniel and Job in the midst of it. as I am alive,' is the utterance of the Lord Jehovah, 'neither son nor daughter would they deliver; they themselves because of their righteousness would deliver their soul."

21 "For this is what the Lord Jehovah has said, 'So, too, [it will be] when there will be my four injurious acts of judgment-sword and famine and injurious wild beast and pestilence-that I shall actually send upon Jerusalem in order to cut off from it earthling man and domestic animal. 22 But. look! there will certainly be left remaining in it an escaped company, those being brought forth. 46 At that time King Neb·uchad nez'zar himself fell down upon his face, and to Daniel he paid homage, and he said to offer even a present and incense to him. 47 The king was answering Daniel and saying: "Truly the God of you men is a God of gods and a Lord of kings and a Revealer of secrets. because you were able to reveal this secret." 48 Consequently the king made Daniel someone great, and many big gifts he gave to him. and he made him the ruler over all the jurisdictional district of Babvlon and the chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon, 49 And Daniel, for his part, made a request of the king, and he appointed over the administration of the jurisdictional district of Babylon Sha'drach. was added to me. 37 "Now I, Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, am praising and exalting and glorifying the King of the heavens, because all his works are truth and his ways are justice, and because those who are walking in pride

he is able to humiliate."

5 As regards Bel·shaz'zar the king, he made a big feast for a thousand of his grandees, and in front of the thousand he was drinking wine. 2 Bel·shaz'zar, under the influence of the wine, said to bring in the vessels of gold and of silver that Neb·u·chad·nez'zar his father had taken away from the temple that was in Jerusalem. that from them the king and his grandees, his concubines and his secondary wives might drink. 3 At that time they brought in the vessels of gold that they had taken away from the temple of the house of God that was in Jerusalem, and from them the king and his grandees, his concubines and his secondary wives drank. 4 They drank wine, and they praised the gods of wood and stone.

5 At that moment the fingers of me; and I blessed the Most High a man's hand came forth and were writing in front of the lampstand upon the plaster of the wall of the rified, because his rulership is a palace of the king, and the king rulership to time indefinite and his was beholding the back of the hand that was writing. 6 At that time. as regards the king, his very complexion was changed in him, and his own thoughts began to frighten him, and his hip joints were loosening and his very knees were knock-

8 At that time all the wise men of the king were coming in, but they were not competent enough to read the writing itself or to make known to the king the interpretation. 9 Consequently King Belshaz'zar was very much frightened and his complexion was changing within him; and his grandees were perplexed.

10 As regards the queen, because of the words of the king and his grandees she entered right into the banqueting hall. The queen answered and said: "O king, keep living even to times indefinite. Do not let your thoughts frighten you. nor let your complexion be changed. 11 There exists a capable man in your kingdom in whom there is the spirit of holy gods; and in the days of your father illumination and insight and wisdom like the wisdom of gods were found in him, and King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar your father himself set him up as chief of the magic-practicing priests, the conjurers, the Chal-de'ans [and] the astrologers, [even] your father, O king; 12 forasmuch as an extraordinary spirit and knowledge and insight to interpret gold and of silver, copper, iron, dreams and the explanation of riddles and the untying of knots had Vegetation they would Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? 14 I have also heard concerning you that the own body got to be wet, until he spirit of gods is in you, and illumination and insight and wisdom extraordinary have been found in you. 15 And now there have been brought in before me the wise men [and] the conjurers, that they may read this very writing, even to make known to me its interpretation: but they are not competent enough to show the very interpretation of the word. 16 And I myself have heard concerning you, that you are able to furnish interpretations and to untie knots themselves. Now, if you are able to read the writing and to make known to me its very interpretation, with purple you will be clothed, with a necklace of gold around your neck, and as the third one in the kingdom you will rule."

17 At that time Daniel was answering and saying before the king: "Let your gifts prove to be to you yourself, and your presents do you give to others. However, I shall read the writing itself to the king, and the interpretation I shall make known to him. 18 As for you, O king, the Most High God himself gave to Neb·u·chad·nez'zar your father the kingdom and the greatness and the dignity and the majesty. 19 And because of the greatness that He gave him, all peoples, national groups and languages proved to be quaking and showing fear before him. Whom he happened to want to, he was killing; and whom he happened to want commanded, and they clothed Danto, he was striking; and whom he happened to want to, he was gold about his neck; and they exalting; and whom he happened heralded concerning him that he to want to, he was humiliating. was to become the third ruler in the 20 But when his heart became kingdom.

22 "And as for you, his son Belshaz'zar, you have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this. 23 But against the Lord of the heavens you exalted yourself. and they brought before you even the vessels of his house; and you vourself and your grandees, your concubines and your secondary wives have been drinking wine from them, and you have praised mere gods of silver and of gold, copper, iron, wood and stone, that are beholding nothing or hearing nothing or knowing nothing; but the God in whose hand your breath is and to whom all your ways belong you have not glorified. 24 Consequently from before him there was being sent the back of a hand, and this very writing was inscribed. 25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: ME'NE, ME'NE, TE'KEL and PAR'SIN.

26 "This is the interpretation of the word: ME'NE, God has numbered [the days of] your kingdom zar the Chal·de'an king was killed. 31 and Da·ri'us the Mede himself received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It seemed good to Darri'us, and he set up over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, who were to be over the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three high officials, of whom Daniel was one, in order that these satraps might continually be giving to them the report and the king himself might not become the loser. 3 Then it was that this Daniel was steadily distinguishing himself over the high officials and the satraps, for a smuch as an extraordinary spirit was in him; and the king was intending to elevate him over all the kingdom.

4 At that time the high officials and the satraps themselves were constantly seeking to find some pretext against Daniel respecting the kingdom; but there was no pretext or corrupt thing at all that they were able to find, forasmuch as he was trustworthy and no negligence or corrupt thing at all was found in him. 5 Consequently these able-bodied men were saying: "We shall find in this Daniel no pretext at all, except we have to find [it] against him in the law of his God."

6 Accordingly these high officials and satraps themselves entered as a throng to the king, and this is what they were saying to him: "O Da·ri'us the king, live on even for times indefinite. 7 All the high officials of the kingdom, the preroyal officers and the governors, have taken counsel together to establish a royal statute and to enforce an interdict, that whoever makes a petition to any god or man for thirty days except to you, O king, should be thrown to the lions' pit. 8 Now, O king, may you establish the statute and sign the writing, in order for [it] not to be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which is not annulled."

30 In that very night Bel-shaz'- 9 In accord with this, King Dari'us himself signed the writing and the interdict.

Plot against Daniel: thrown in lions' pit

10 But Daniel, as soon as he knew that the writing had been signed, entered into his house, and, the windows in his roof chamber being open for him toward Jerusalem, even three times in a day he was kneeling on his knees and praying and offering praise before his God, as he had been regularly doing prior to this. 11 At that time these able-bodied men themselves crowded in and found Daniel petitioning and imploring favor before his God.

12 Then it was that they approached and were saying before the king concerning the interdict of the king: "Is there not an interdict that you have signed that any man that asks a petition from any god or man for thirty days except from you, O king, he should be thrown to the lions' pit?" The king was answering and saving: "The matter is well established according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which is not annulled." 13 Immediately they answered, and they were saying before the king: "Daniel, who is of the exiles of Judah, has paid no regard to you, O king, nor to the interdict that you signed, but three times in a day he is making his petition." 14 Consequently the king, as soon as he heard the word, it was very displeasing to him, and toward Daniel he set [his] mind in order to rescue him; and till the setting of the sun he kept on striving to deliver him. 15 Finally these able-bodied men fects and the satraps, the high themselves entered as a throng to the king, and they were saying to the king: "Take note, O king, that the law belonging to the Medes and the Persians is that any interdict or statute that the king himself establishes is not to be changed."

16 Accordingly the king himself commanded, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the pit of the lions. The king was answering and saying to Daniel: "Your God whom you are serving with constancy, he himself will rescue you."

17 And a stone was brought and are to be quaking and fearing before placed on the mouth of the pit, the God of Daniel. 23 Then it was that the king himself became very glad, and Daniel himself he commanded to pit, and there was no hurt at all heart of a man. found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

16 Here the Pharisees and Sadducees approached him and to tempt him, they asked him to display to them a sign from heaven. 2 In reply he said to them: [["When evening falls you are accustomed to say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is fire-red': 3 and at morning, 'It will be wintry. rainy weather today, for the sky is fire-red, but gloomy-looking.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but the signs of the times you cannot interpret.]] 4 A wicked and adulterous generation keeps on seeking for a sign, but no sign will be given it except the sign of Jo'nah." With that he went away, leaving them behind.

5 Now the disciples crossed to the other side and forgot to take loaves along. 6 Jesus said to them: "Keep your eyes open and watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 7 So they began to reason among themselves. saying: "We did not take any loaves along." 8 Knowing this, Jesus said: "Why are you doing this reasoning among yourselves, because you have no loaves, you with little faith? 9 Do you not yet see the point, or do you not remember the five loaves in the case of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up? 10 Or the seven loaves in the case of the four thousand and how many provision baskets you took up? 11 How is it you do not discern that I did not talk to you about loaves? But watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 12 Then they grasped that he said what benefit will it be to a man offering thanks he broke them and to watch out, not for the leaven began distributing to the disciples, of the loaves, but for the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when he had come into the parts of Caes a re'a Phi lip'pi. Jesus went asking his disciples: "Who are men saving the Son of man is?" 14 They said: "Some say John the Baptist, others E·li'jah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15 He said to them: "You, though, who do you say I am?" 16 In answer Simon Peter said: "You are the Christ. the Son of the living God." 17 In response Jesus said to him: "Happy you are. Simon son of Jo'nah, because flesh and blood did not reveal [it] to you, but my Father who is in the heavens did. 18 Also, I say to you, You are Peter, and on this rock-mass I will build my congregation, and the gates of Ha'des will not overpower it. 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you may bind on earth will be the thing bound in the heavens, and whatever you may loose on earth will be the thing loosed in the heavens." 20 Then he sternly charged the disciples not to say to anybody that he was the Christ.

21 From that time forward Jesus Christ commenced showing his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the older men and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised up. 22 At this Peter took him aside and commenced rebuking him, saving: "Be kind to yourself, Lord; you will not have this [destiny] at all." 23 But, turning his back, he said to Peter: "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me. because you think, not God's thoughts, but those of men."

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake and continually follow me. 25 For whoever wants to save his soul will lose it; but whoever loses his soul for my sake will find it. 26 For Six days later Jesus took Peter and James and John his brother along and brought them up into a lofty mountain by themselves. 2 And he was transfigured Jesus rebuked it, and the demon before them, and his face shone as came out of him; and the boy was the sun, and his outer garments cured from that hour. 19 Therebecame brilliant as the light. 3 And, look! there appeared to privately and said: "Why is it we them Moses and E·li'jah, conversing with him. 4 Responsively Peter said to Jesus: "Lord, it is fine for us to be here. If you wish, I will erect three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for E·li'jah." 5 While he was yet speaking, look! a bright cloud overshadowed them, and, look! a voice out of the cloud, saving: "This is my Son, the beloved, whom I have approved: listen to him." 6 At hearing this the disciples fell upon their faces and became very much afraid. 7 Then Jesus came near and, touching them, said: "Get up and have no fear." 8 When they raised their eyes, they saw no one mountain. Jesus commanded them. saying: "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man is raised up from the dead."

How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me." 18 Then upon the disciples came up to Jesus could not expel it?" 20 He said to them: "Because of your little faith. For truly I say to you, If you have faith the size of a mustard grain, you will say to this mountain, 'Transfer from here to there,' and it will transfer, and nothing will be impossible for you."

22 It was while they were gathered together in Gal'i-lee that Jesus said to them: "The Son of man is destined to be betrayed into men's hands, 23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up." Consequently they were very much grieved.

24 After they arrived in Ca-per'but Jesus himself only. 9 And as na um the men collecting the two they were descending from the drachmas [tax] approached Peter and said: "Does your teacher not pay the two drachmas [tax]?" 25 He said: "Yes." However, when he entered the house Jesus got 10 However, the disciples put the ahead of him by saying: "What "E·li'jah, indeed, is coming and or from the strangers?" 26 When ever, I say to you that E lijah has Jesus said to him: "Really, then, already come and they did not the sons are tax-free. 27 But that recognize him but did with him the we do not cause them to stumble. things they wanted. Take that you."

18 In that hour the disciples came near to Jesus and said: "Who really is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?" 2 So, calling a young child to him, he set it in their midst 3 and said: "Truly I say to you, Unless you turn around and become as young children, you will by no means enter into the kingdom of the heavens. 4 Therefore, whoever will humble himself like this young child is the one that is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens: 5 and whoever receives one such young child on the basis of my name receives me [also]. 6 But whoever stumbles one of these little ones who put faith in me, it is more beneficial for him to have hung around his neck a millstone such as is turned by an ass and to be sunk in the wide, open sea.

7 "Woe to the world due to the stumbling blocks! Of course, the stumbling blocks must of necessity come, but wee to the man through whom the stumbling block comes! 8 If, then, your hand or your foot is making you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you: it is finer for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown with two hands or two feet into my brother to sin against me and the everlasting fire. 9 Also, if your am I to forgive him? If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. 16 But if he does not listen, take along with you one or two more, in order that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every matter may be established. 17 If he does not listen to them, speak to the congregation. If he does not listen even to the congregation, let him be to you just as a man of the nations and 22 In further reply Jesus again spoke to them with illustrations, saving: 2 "The kingdom of the heavens has become like a man, a king, that made a marriage feast for his son. 3 And he sent forth his slaves to call those invited to the marriage feast, but they were unwilling to come. 4 Again he sent forth other slaves, saving, 'Tell those invited: "Look! I have prepared my dinner, my bulls and fattened animals are slaughtered. and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast."' 5 But unconcerned they went off, one to his own field, another to his commercial business: 6 but the rest, laying hold of his slaves, treated them insolently and killed them.

7 "But the king grew wrathful. and sent his armies and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. 8 Then he said to his slaves. 'The marriage feast indeed is ready. but those invited were not worthy. 9 Therefore go to the roads leading out of the city, and anyone you find invite to the marriage feast.' 10 Accordingly those slaves went out to the roads and gathered together all they found, both wicked and the third, until through all and good; and the room for the seven. 27 Last of all the woman wedding ceremonies was filled with those reclining at the table.

11 "When the king came in to inspect the guests he caught sight there of a man not clothed with a marriage garment. 12 So he said to him, 'Fellow, how did you get in here not having on a marriage garment?' He was rendered speechless. 13 Then the king said to his servants, 'Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the darkness outside. There is where [his] weeping and the gnashing of [his] teeth will be.'

They brought him a de nar'i us. 20 And he said to them: "Whose image and inscription is this?" 21 They said: "Caesar's." Then he said to them: "Pay back, therefore, Caesar's things to Caesar, but God's things to God." 22 Well, when they heard [that], they marveled, and leaving him they went off.

23 On that day Sadducees. who say there is no resurrection, came up to him and asked him: 24 "Teacher, Moses said, 'If any man dies without having children. his brother must take his wife in marriage and raise up offspring for his brother.' 25 Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and deceased, and, not having offspring, he left his wife for his brother, 26 It went the same way also with the second died. 28 Consequently, in the resurrection, to which of the seven will she be wife? For they all got her."

29 In reply Jesus said to them: "You are mistaken, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God: 30 for in the resurrection neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage. but are as angels in heaven. 31 As regards the resurrection of the dead, did you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob'? He said to him: "You yourself said [it]."

26 As they continued eating, Jesus took a loaf and, after saying a blessing, he broke it and, giving it to the disciples, he said: "TAKE, eat. This means my body." 27 Also, he took a cup and, having given thanks, he gave it to them, saying: "Drink out of it, all of you; 28 for sible for this to pass away except this means my 'blood of the covenant,' which is to be poured out 43 And he came again and found in behalf of many for forgiveness of sins. 29 But I tell you, I will by no means drink henceforth any of this product of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father." 30 Finally, after singing praises, they went out to the Mount of sleeping and taking your rest! Judas, one of the twelve, came and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs from the chief priests and older men of the people.

48 Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying: "Whoever it is I kiss, this is he; take him into custody." 49 And going straight up to Jesus he said: "Good day. Rabbi!" and kissed him very tenderly. 50 But Jesus said to him: "Fellow, for what purpose are you present?" Then they came forward and laid hands on Jesus and took him into custody. 51 But, look! one of those with Jesus reached out his hand and drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest and took off his ear. 52 Then Jesus said to him: "Return your sword to its place, for all those who take the sword will perish by the sword. 53 Or do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father to supply me at this moment more than twelve legions of angels? 54 In that case, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must take place this way?" 55 In that hour Jesus said to the crowds: "Have you come out with swords and clubs as against a robber to arrest me? Day after day I used to sit in the temple teaching. and vet you did not take me into custody. 56 But all this has taken place for the scriptures of the prophets to be fulfilled." Then all fled.

said: "This man said, 'I am able to throw down the temple of God and build it up in three days." 62 With that the high priest stood up and said to him: "Have you no answer? What is it these are testifying against you?" 63 But Jesus kept silent. So the high priest said to him: "By the living God I put you under oath to tell us whether you are the Christ the Son of God!" 64 Jesus said to him; "You yourself said [it]. Yet I say to you men. From henceforth you will see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven." 65 Then the high priest ripped his outer garments, saying: "He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? See! Now you have heard the blasphemy. 66 What is your opinion?" They returned answer: "He is liable to death." 67 Then they spit into his face and hit him with their fists. Others slapped him in the face, 68 saying: "Prophesy to us, you Christ. Who is it that struck you?"

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard; and a servant girl came up to him, saying: "You, too, were with Jesus the Gal·i·le'an!" 70 But he denied it before them all, saving: "I do not know what you are talking about." 71 After he had gone out to the gatehouse, another girl noticed him and said to those there: "This man was with the disciples abandoned him and Jesus the Nazarene'." 72 And again he denied it, with an oath: "I do not know the man!" 73 Aftcustody led him away to Ca'ia phas er a little while those standing the high priest, where the scribes around came up and said to Peter: "Certainly you also are one of them, together. 58 But Peter kept fol- for, in fact, your dialect gives you lowing him at a good distance, as away." 74 Then he started to curse far as the courtyard of the high and swear: "I do not know the priest, and, after going inside, he man!" And immediately a cock was sitting with the house attend- crowed. 75 And Peter called to mind the saying Jesus spoke, name-59 Meantime the chief priests ly: "Before a cock crows, you will and the entire San'he-drin were disown me three times." They said: "What is that to us? You must see to that!" 5 So he threw the silver pieces into the temple and withdrew, and went off and hanged himself. 6 But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said: "It is not lawful to drop them into the sacred treasury, because they are the price of blood." 7 After consulting together, they bought with them the potter's field to bury strangers. 8 Therefore that field has been called "Field of Blood" to this very day. 9 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying: "And they took the thirty silver pieces, the price upon the man that was priced, the one on whom some of the sons of Israel set a price, 10 and they gave them for the potter's field, according to he released Bar ab'bas to them. what Jehovah had commanded me."

11 Jesus now stood before the governor; and the governor put the ernor took Jesus into the goverquestion to him: "Are you the king of the Jews?" Jesus replied: "You yourself say [it]." 12 But, while 28 And disrobing him, they draped he was being accused by the chief priests and older men, he made no answer. 13 Then Pilate said to and put it on his head and a reed him: "Do you not hear how many in his right hand, And, kneeling things they are testifying against before him, they made fun of him, you?" 14 Yet he did not answer him, no, not a word, so that the Jews!" 30 And they spit upon him governor wondered very much.

They said: "Bar ab'bas." 22 Pilate said to them: "What, then, shall I do with Jesus the so-called Christ?" They all said: "Let him be impaled!" 23 He said: "Why, what bad thing did he do?" Still they kept crying out all the more: "Let him be impaled!"

24 Seeing that it did no good but, rather, an uproar was arising. Pilate took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying: "I am innocent of the blood of this [man]. You yourselves must see to it." 25 At that all the people said in answer: "His blood come upon us and upon our children." 26 Then but he had Jesus whipped and handed him over to be impaled.

LONG CONCLUSION

Certain ancient manuscripts (ACD) and versions (VgSyc.p) add the following long conclusion, but which *BSv*Arm omit:

9 After he rose early on the first day of the week he appeared first to Mary Mag'da.lene, from whom he had expelled seven demons. 10 She went and reported to those who had been with him, as they were mourning and weeping. " But they, when they heard he had come to life and had been viewed by her, did not believe. 12 Moreover, after these things he appeared in another form to two of them walking along, as they were going into the country in and they came back and reported to the rest. Neither did they believe these. 14 But later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table, and he re-proached their lack of faith and hardheartedness, because they did not believe those who had beheld him now raised up from the dead. 15 And he said to them: "Go into all the these things, Jesus himself sent out world and preach the good news to all creation. <sup>16</sup> He that believes and is baptized will be saved, but he that does not believe will be con-vation.

demned. 17 Furthermore, these signs will accompany those believing: By the use of my name they will expel demons, they will speak with tongues, 18 and with their hands they will pick up serpents, and if they drink anything deadly it will not hurt them at all. They will lay their hands their hands upon sick persons, and these will become well."

19 So, then, the Lord Jesus, after having spoken to them, was taken up to heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. 20 They, accordingly, went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and backed up the message through the accompanying signs.

As they entered into the receives him [also] that sent me cloud, they became fearful. 35 And forth. For he that conducts hima voice came out of the cloud, self as a lesser one among all of

49 In response John said: "Instructor, we saw a certain man expelling demons by the use of your name and we tried to prevent him, because he is not following with us." 50 But Jesus said to him: "Do not you men try to prevent [him], for he that is not against you is for you."

51 As the days were now coming to the full for him to be taken up, he firmly set his face to go to Jerusalem. 52 So he sent forth messengers in advance of him. And they went their way and entered into a village of Sa·mar'i·tans, to and it scarcely withdraws from him | make preparation for him; 53 but they did not receive him, because begged your disciples to expel it, but his face was set for going to they could not." 41 In response Jerusalem. 54 When the disciples Jesus said: "O faithless and twisted James and John saw this they said: "Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and annihilate them?" 55 But he turned and rebuked them. 56 So they went to a different village.

57 Now as they were going on the road, someone said to him: "I will follow you to wherever you may depart." 58 And Jesus said to him: "Foxes have dens and the Son of man has nowhere to Now as they were all marveling lay down his head." 59 Then he at all the things he was doing, said to another: "Be my follower." he said to his disciples: 44 "Give The man said: "Permit me first to lodgment to these words in your leave and bury my father." 60 But ears, for the Son of man is destined he said to him: "Let the dead bury to be delivered into the hands of their dead, but you go away and men." 45 But they continued with- declare abroad the kingdom of out understanding of this saving. "I will follow you, Lord: but first it will be more endurable for Tyre permit me to say good-by to those and Si'don in the judgment than in my household." 62 Jesus said for you. 15 And you, Ca-per'nato him: "No man that has put um, will you perhaps be exalted his hand to a plow and looks at to heaven? Down to Ha'des you will the things behind is well fitted for come! the kingdom of God."

10 After these things the Lord designated seventy others and sent them forth by twos in advance of him into every city and place to which he himself was going to come. 2 Then he began to say to them: "The harvest, indeed, is great, but the workers are few. Therefore beg the Master of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest. 3 Go forth. Look! I am sending you forth as lambs in I have given you the authority to among wolves. 4 Do not carry a purse, nor a food pouch, nor sandals, and do not embrace anybody in greeting along the road. 5 Wherever you enter into a house say first, 'May this house have peace.' 6 And if a friend of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if there is not, it will turn back to you. 7 So stay in that house, eating and drinking the things they provide, for the worker is worthy of his wages. Do not be transferring from house to house.

8 "Also, wherever you enter into a city and they receive you, eat the things set before you, 9 and way approved by you. 22 All cure the sick ones in it, and go on telling them. "The kingdom of God has come near to you.' 10 But wherever you enter into a city and and who the Father is, no one they do not receive you, go out into its broad ways and say, 11 'Even the dust that got stuck to our feet from your city we wipe off against you. Nevertheless, keep this in mind, that the kingdom of God has come near.' 12 I tell you that it will be more endurable for Sod'om in that day than for that and kings desired to see the things city.

17 Then the seventy returned with joy, saying: "Lord, even the demons are made subject to us by the use of your name." 18 At that he said to them: "I began to behold Satan already fallen like lightning from heaven, 19 Look! trample underfoot serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will by any means do you hurt. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice over this. that the spirits are made subject to you, but rejoice because your names have been inscribed in the heavens." 21 In that very hour he became overjoyed in the holy spirit and said: "I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. because you have carefully hidden these things from wise and intellectual ones, and have revealed them to babes. Yes, O Father, because to do thus came to be the things have been delivered to me by my Father, and who the Son is no one knows but the Father; [knows] but the Son, and he to whom the Son is willing to reveal him."

23 With that he turned to the disciples by themselves and said: "Happy are the eyes that behold the things you are beholding. 24 For I say to you, Many prophets you are beholding but did not see them, and to hear the things you are hearing but did not hear them."

25 Now, look! a certain man place in you had taken place in versed in the Law rose up, to test Tyre and Si'don, they would long him out, and said: "Teacher, by ago have repented sitting in sack- doing what shall I inherit evercloth and ashes. 14 Consequently lasting life?" 26 He said to him:
